

Aviation and Missile Command

Land of the Free

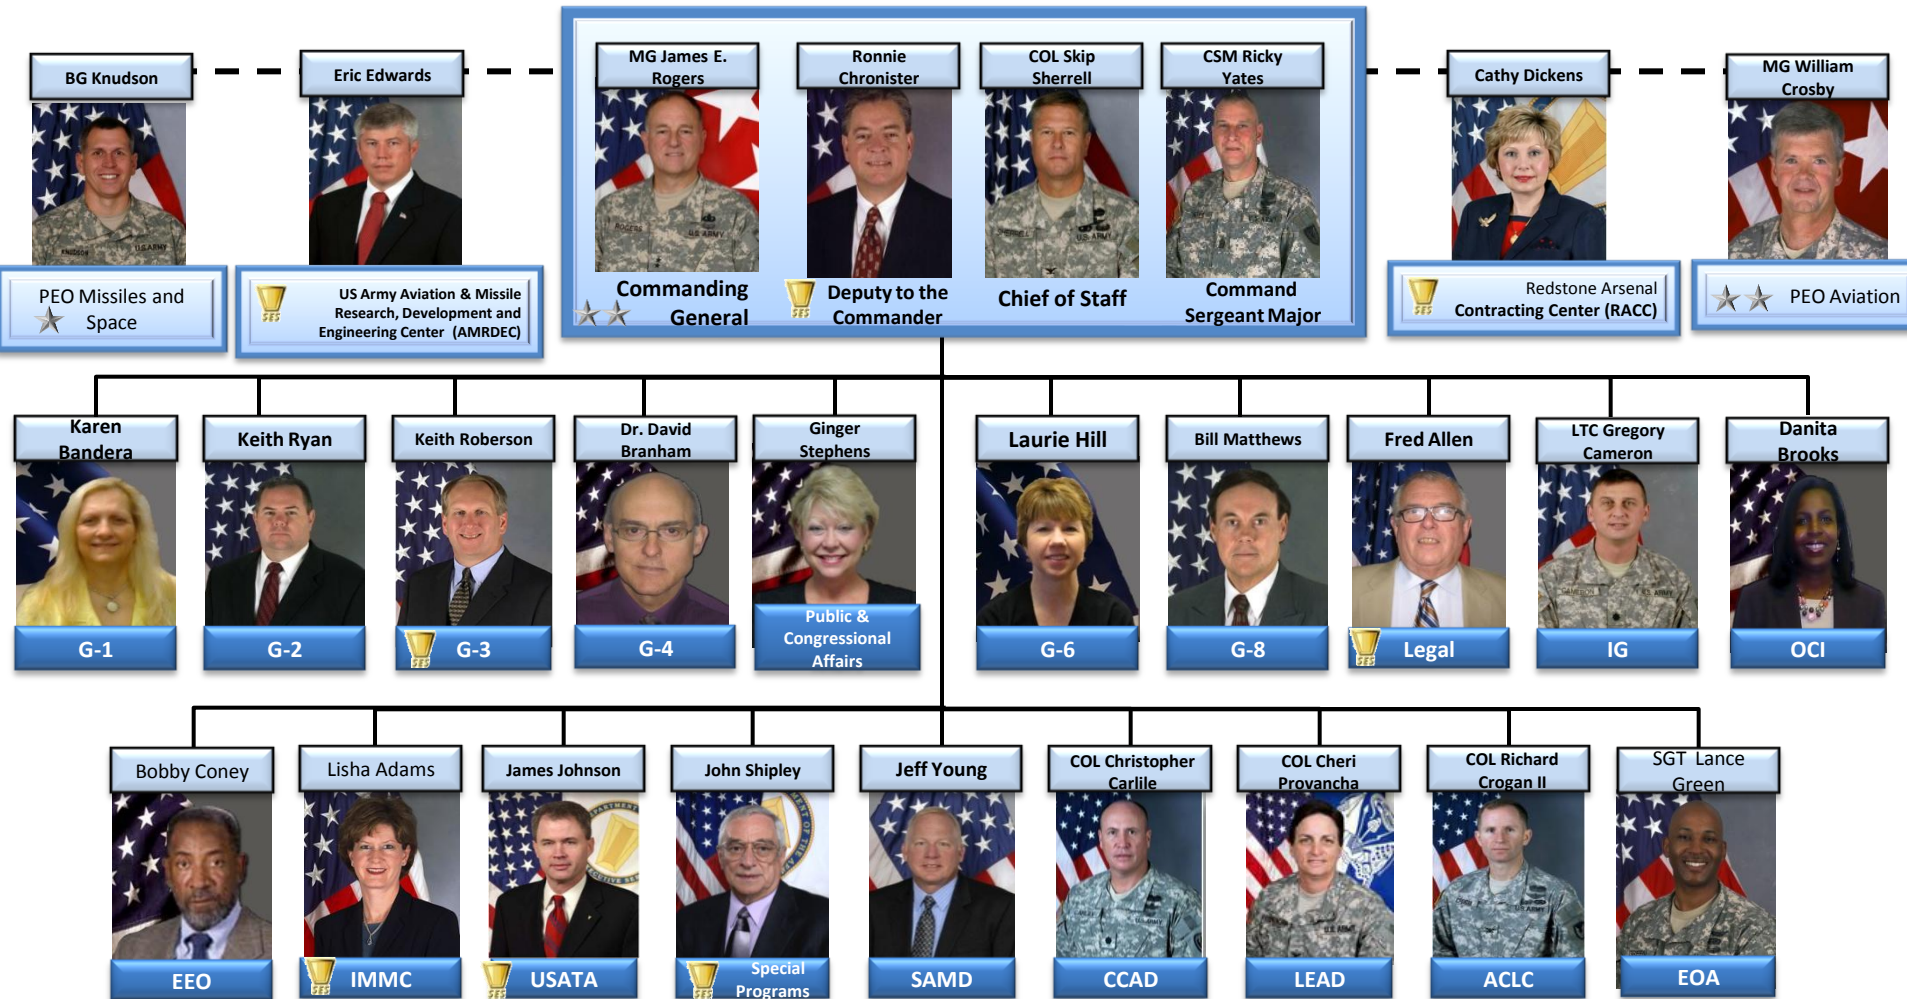

“Becoming more efficient, as we stay effective.”

MG James E. Rogers

Meet our Leaders

“Army Aviation and Missile Materiel Enterprise”

AMCOM Command Priorities

“Becoming more efficient, as we stay effective.”

1. Support the Warfighter throughout the ARFORGEN cycle
2. Enable, support, and improve weapon system life-cycle success, including S&T
3. Recruit, develop, and sustain a top performing workforce
4. Integrate Security Assistance into the ME
5. Instill a culture of efficiency without sacrificing effectiveness
6. Leverage ME relationships & collaboration to derive measurable benefit to the Warfighter
7. Assure technology protection

Look toward the Future!

Final Thoughts

“Becoming more efficient, as we stay effective.”

- Building your bench
- Continuing education
- Managing the workforce
- Leading by example
- Mentorship

Warfighter First