

It's Beginning to Look a Lot Like Christmas

Words & Music by Meredith Wilson, 1951

INTRO:

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christmas, every-where you go.

Take a look in the five and ten, glistening once a-gain, with candy canes and silver lanes a-glow.

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christmas, toys in every store,

But the prettiest sight to see is the holly that will be on your own front door.

BRIDGE:

A pair of Hop-a-long boots and a pistol that shoots are the wishes of Barney and Ben.

Dolls that will talk and will go for a walk is the hope of Janice and Jen.

And Mom and Dad can hardly wait for school to start again.

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christmas, every-where you go.

There's a tree in the grand ho-tel, one in the park as well; the sturdy kind that doesn't mind the snow.

It's be-gin-ning to look a lot like Christmas, soon the bells will start.

And the thing that will make them ring is the carol that you sing right with-in your heart.

Right with-in your heart.
