Some 32 Countryside Kiwanians and their guests attended the Officer/Director Installation Dinner at the Olive Garden Restaurant in Clearwater on Tuesday evening, September 25. The mood was pleasant, the food was great and thanks to Master of Ceremonies Incoming President, DICK LUCE, some comedy was introduced which was enjoyed by all present. President DICK recalled what was popular in the year of his birth, 1928, and then called on Secretary BILL GREER who regaled us repeating a phone conversation he had with his grandmother complete with her Italian dialect. Outgoing President SARAH BYARS thanked the members for a great year. Lt. Governor LOU REMZ installed the incoming officers and directors and thanked the outgoing officers and directors for their service. Pictured Above are DICK LUCE, SARAH BYARS, LOU REMZ and BILL GREER addressing the dinner meeting.

Street Cleaning Chair ELMER LUOMA reports upon trash pickup of Enterprise Road on Saturday, September 29:

"On hand were BILL GREER, GEORGE HARDIN, JOE UHRINEK and myself. We were short handed, but we were up to the task.

The weather cooperated, although it was still summer-like. We had to walk a little farther and JOE helped me finish my sections. The young helping out the older generation.

Surprisingly, they had mowed recently and the mowers must have picked up some of the trash as Enterprise Road was cleaner than usual. We only had four bags of trash. Time spent was one plus hours. Discussion was mainly about education for the children and grandchildren. Recommend and not force the children into doing what the parents want. Encourage them to make the choice.

Coffee and tea from Chick-fil-A and goodies from yours truly."

the "drug lords"

Only DICK LUCE and ELMER LUOMA were on hand at the Clearwater Free Clinic pharmacy on Thursday, September 27. With just two present, this required DICK and ELMER to spend some two hours sorting medications, that is, removing individual drugs from larger packaging, to be placed on the pharmacy shelves.

The volunteers were rewarded with store bought coffee cake to have with their coffee.
