LOU REMZ
 Lt. Gov. FL Kiwanis Division 12

We were pleased to welcome LOU REMZ, Lt. Gov., FL Kiwanis Division 12, to our breakfast meeting last week, Tuesday, February 12.

LOU REMZ with HIXSON AWARD

In her comments, Gov. LOU made it plain that she was not worthy of the Hixson Fellow Award presented to her by Florida Kiwanis Gov. MARK TAYLOR on the occasion of his official visit to Division 12 on Thursday, February 7, and announced she would have it passed around to each member as she visits the clubs because the award "belongs to all of you".

Gov. LOU then installed our newest member, CAROL THOMPSON, as a Countryside Kiwanian, welcoming CAROL to the Kiwanis family and providing her with the symbols of membership including a Certificate of Membership, T-shirt, cap and personal nametag. Another new member, MARY JO SCHUURMAN, unfortunately could not be present and will be installed at a later date.

Next, Gov. LOU singled out three members to be awarded the official Governor's pin, their Kodak moment according to Gov. LOU: BILL GREER for his untiring fundraising efforts, DAN PALMISANO for his award-winning club newsletter and STUART HARRIS for his dedication to the club's sponsored youth programs as Sponsored Youth Chair.

Gov. LOU concluded her remarks reminding the members that there is a place for every one in Kiwanis, whatever it might be that they would like to participate and invited members to take advantage of the orientation and training programs such as Kiwanis Education Day on Saturday, March 8.
