Countryside Kiwanis Husband of the Year !

Announced at the breakfast meeting last week, Tuesday, March 11, CALVIN HORN is the first recipient of a new award authorized by the Board of Directors on Tuesday, February 5th, 2008, to be known as the "CALVIN". In subsequent years the award will be presented to the spouse of a member who has exhibited meritorious service in the best tradition of Countryside Kiwanis.

JAN HORN, Executive Director of Blooming Place for Kids and Countryside Kiwanis member, speaking of her hubby, CALVIN before the announcement, said:

"Upon meeting CALVIN 14 years ago, I lovingly described CALVIN to a friend as a "Porch Dog". He loves being home, whether it is watching sports, preferably his Memphis Tigers and Tampa Bay Bucs, or having a beer on the patio with close friends and family and being with his girls, "Sara the Yorkie" who rules the house and "Hobbs, his old girl", a mutt from the pound my daughter and I gave him shortly after our first few dates. The "Porch Dog" stuff, however, does not involve any home "honey-do" projects because CALVIN is not very fond of house projects. He would rather be on his float- ing thing called a sailboat that is a hole in the water he pours a few bucks in every few weeks.

"While traveling almost 4 hours to and from work every day for almost 5 years, CALVIN financially and morally supported for a dream come true called "Blooming Place for Kids", a happy success story helping neglected and abused children, something CALVIN never dreamed he would be doing until he met his "old girl". By the way, in realizing that dream of mine it has become very dear to him too."

A very pleased CALVIN HORN expressed his appreciation with the award.
