ANN KELLY
 Afternoon Show Host

We are indebted to ANN KELLY, ANN KELLY
 Afternoon Show Host at Magic 94.9, FM Radio, our breakfast meeting speaker last week, April 15, for providing the following summary of her comments:

" I was fortunate enough to find what I loved to do in life from the moment I walked into the campus radio station at Bowling Green State University. And now, with almost 20 years here in Tampa Bay with Cox Radio, I have found the most important thing is to stay connected with the community, and to give back at every opportunity.

"I serve on the Foundation Board of Directors of the Hospice of the Florida Suncoast, and work with the American Cancer Society and the Arthritis Foundation, among many others.

"And no matter how much the industry has changed (after all, when I started, I played records, now I play computers). it's communicating with my listeners in Hillsborough, Pinellas, Pasco and Hernando counties everyday that's still so much fun. It's my hope to be doing this for another 20 years, and to still have the Kiwanis as our wonderful participants in our annual Marine Corps Toys for Tots Drive."

(Editor's Note: ANN KELLY, a native of suburban Cleveland, Ohio, will celebrate her 20th year with Magic 94.9 on August 20th, having done the 3 am wake up call for 12 and 1/2 years before moving to the afternoon show.)

DICK LUCE
