 Spokesman for High Tech Crime Institute

FRED DIETZ

We are indebted to FRED DIETZ, a Spokesman for High Tech Crime Institute, our Guest speaker last week, July 24, For the following summary of his remarks.

"Thanks for having me, it was a pleasure! We talked about the High Tech Crime Institute, its' role in training and consulting with law enforcement and businesses in the field of cyber crime and digital forensics. Our clients are worldwide from NASA, CIA, the US military, Pasco County Sheriff's Dept, NH Marine Patrol, Turkish National Police, etc.

The Big risk that small and medium size businesses face. The risks associated with wireless technologies, cell phones and laptops. Password protection, network protection, setting guidelines for employees regarding their ability to access the company's network/internet.

Trusted employees account for a majority of security breeches. In general, one needs to be proactive!"

Editor's Note: We learn that all who work for the High Tech Crime Institute are either retired military or law enforcement. FRED DIETZ, originally from Brooklyn, New York, is a Business Consultant and owns his own company.

THOMAS ESKRIDGE, originally scheduled to speak to us, is retired law enforcement and currently the Chief Operations Officer of High Tech Crime Institute in Clearwater where he has co-authored course materials and books. High Tech Crime Institute is a full service private investigations firm.

Excerpt from recent letter from Countryside sponsored Doorway Student:
 "Mr. Frank Ward, 2005-2006 President, Kiwanis Club of Countryside:
 I would like to thank you for sponsoring me for the Doorways scholarship. I look forward to going to college at UF. I am aiming to be a veterinarian/private pilot. I'm only in fifth grade and I will strive to be drug free, maintain good grades and stay out of trouble. I have just completed the D.A.R.E. program which is to stay drug free. Sincerely STEPHEN WOODIN, 5th Grade, Oldsmar Elementary School

WE URGENTLY NEED YOUR HELP!!!
 FOR THE CARING CORNER!!!

The Caring Corner is deeply in need of the following:

1. Vacations, cruises, tickets to ballgames and other large quality items for the live and silent auctions.
2. Money and items for the store. Remember $200 donation earns your banner patch, but I am sure you will want to give more.
3. Helpful hands to arrange and man the Caring Corner during the Convention

My goal is to have each Club give, at least, the $200 donation. We have never had every club participate and I want YOU to help me make this happen this year.

Please call or e-mail any questions to Nancy Liddell (813) 476-4820 or nliddell@tampabay.rr.com

Thanking your club in advance for your donation.
