Republican News & Activities

- Bill Tucker wrote a letter on “Agenda 21 is dangerous” that was published in the Valdosta Daily Times, Sunday August 14, 2011.
 - We have printed hand outs available on “Agenda 21”.
- John & Roberta Magnasco spoke on radio station 105.9 about the concerns of installing Smart Meters by power companies and future utility companies.
 - We have printed information on this issue.
- Six members of the LCRP went to the GOP Annual Fish Fry in Perry Saturday, August 27, 2011. You may be aware that the Herman Cain won the Straw Poll with Ron Paul three votes behind him and Rick Perry placed third. Former Governor, Sonny Perdue introduced Newt Gingrich. After his speech, Senators Saxby Chambliss & Johnny Isakson spoke. A Vietnam Vet was honored with a new wheelchair. The crowd certainly appreciated his service to our country. The Attorney General of Georgia, Sam Olens was in attendance.
- The Valdosta City School Board met on Monday, August 29, 2011. Several GOP members were at the meeting. A vote was taken concerning the school consolidation. All board members voted against school consolidation, except one.

September Activities
