Rainbow Wahine in Season-Openers

Hawai'i will open the program's 35th season of NCAA Division I play in 2008. UH is 28-6 all-time in season-openers, but have lost two of their last three and three of their last seven.

UH is also 21-2 in season-openers at home, losing only their first-ever opener at home in 1976 (a loss to UCLA at the Neal Blaisdell Center) and a five-game loss to Michigan last season.

Hawai'i in the Hawaiian Airlines Wahine Classic

The Rainbow Wahine will be hosting their 21st Hawaiian Airlines Wahine Volleyball Classic, holding a 45-15 (.750) record in the tournament's history. UH has won nine of the previous 20 tournaments, taking second seven times and third four times, never taking last in the classic.

Two of the opposing teams have also made appearances in the Wahine Classic. UCLA has appeared in 18 classics, playing in every one from 1988 to 2003, then returning to the classic from 2006-07. They have a 41-13 record (.759), winning eight titles.

Penn State has appeared in the classic twice, taking second in 1993 and winning the title in 2005. The Nittany Lions own a 5-1 record (.833) in the tournament. Ohio has never competed in the Hawaiian Airlines Wahine Classic.

Houston Looks To Leave Her Mark

Jamie Houston comes into her senior year as UH's top returnee, winning WAC Player of the Year honors in 2007. She's not only coming into the season with high expectations from her team, but also is receiving recognition from others, as Houston was named the WAC Preseason Player of the Year.

Houston ended up second in the nation last season with a 5.51 kill per game average, earning AVCA All-West Region and first-team all-WAC honors. She also averaged 2.56 digs and 0.77 blocks per game.

The Huntsville, Ala., native has racked up 1,611 kills in her first three seasons with the team, already ranking fourth all-time in the UH record book. Her 4.97 career kill per game average also ranks third.

Houston is a three-time all-WAC player that earned third team All-America honors in 2006.

Kaufman Expected to Soar in 2008

Amber Kaufman comes into her junior season with high expectations after two seasons under her belt. Kaufman was a starter in each of her first two seasons with the Rainbow Wahine, playing as a right-side hitter in 2006 and as a middle hitter in 2007.

Kaufman averaged 1.77 kills and 0.84 blocks per game last season. But it might have been her offseason that generated much of the excitement about the San Jose, Calif., native. In the spring, Kaufman won the Western Athletic Conference title in the high jump, breaking the school record with a jump of 6 feet, 0.5 in. She then earned All-America honors after placing fifth at the NCAA Championships and then placed 12th at the U.S. Olympic Trials.

The junior is a two-time academic all-WAC honoree that earned WAC all-freshman team honors in 2006. She was named to the preseason all-WAC team this year.

Facing the No. 1 Team in the Country

Hawai'i has faced the No. 1 team in the AVCA Coaches Poll 20 times, carrying a record of 8-12 against top-ranked squads. Penn State will be the seventh team ranked No. 1 in the country that the Rainbow Wahine will play this decade.

UH's has lost their last five matches to teams ranked No. 1. Their last win against a team that was No. 1 in the poll came against UCLA on Sept. 4, 2000.

UCLA comes into the classic ranked sixth in the country. UH is 11-7 against teams ranked No. 6 in the poll, and have won its last two matches against the sixth-ranked team, coming in 2003 and '06.

The Rainbow Wahine have played 179 total matches against teams ranked in the top 10 of the AVCA Coaches' Poll since its inception in 1982, posting a 95-84 record (.531), but have been just 1-6 against top 10 teams in the past two seasons.

Conference titles	13

Herring Arrives At Hawai'i

The much-anticipated arrival of Kanani Herring to the Rainbow Wahine program starts this weekend after a much-celebrated prep career in the state of Hawai'i.

Herring played her high school volleyball at Kamehameha, where she was the three-time Hawai'i Player of the Year. She also earned Volleyball magazine High School National Player of the Year honors in 2007, being named the No. 5 senior in the country by prepvolleyball.com.

The Ewa Beach, O'ahu, native led Kamehameha to three-straight state and ILH championships from 2005-07, as the Warriors ended the 2007 ranked No. 4 in the final prepvolleyball.com national high school rankings. In club volleyball, Herring played for 'Imi 'Ike, leading the team to a silver medal finish at the Junior Olympic Volleyball Festival in 2008 in the 18-opens division.

The freshman also played on the United States Youth National Team for two years, helping the U.S. to win the 2006 NORCECA Girls Youth Continental Championship. In that tournament, Herring earned best receiver honors.

'Bows In The Polls

The Rainbow Wahine are ranked No. 9 in the CSTV/AVCA Coaches Top 25 Poll this week. Hawai'i has enjoyed a successful run of 233-consecutive weeks in the poll, dating back to 1992, appearing in 362 of the 366 (.989) polls all-time. UH is third in poll appearances, behind only Nebraska and Stanford, who have both appeared in all 366 polls.

The Rainbow Wahine also rank third to Stanford and Nebraska in weeks ranked in the top 10 (273) and rank third to Nebraska and UCLA in weeks ranked at No. 1 (48). In their 48 weeks as the No. 1 team in the country, UH boasts a 126-10 (.923) record.

Cubi-Otineru Returns After All-WAC Season

Aneli Cubi-Otineru returns for her junior season after earning first team all-WAC honors in 2007. The Hale'iwa, O'ahu, native averaged 3.69 kills and 2.79 digs per game, posting 13 double-doubles on the season. She was also named to the pre-season all-WAC team this season.

Cubi-Otineru transferred to the Rainbow Wahine after playing one season at the College of Southern Idaho. She earned NJCAA and AVCA All-America honors, helping the Golden Eagles to an NJCAA national championship.

Rainbow Wahine Chosen to Win 13th WAC Title

Hawai'i was chosen by the coaches in the conference to defend its Western Athletic Conference title.

The Rainbow Wahine received eight of the nine first-place votes with New Mexico State earning the other first-place vote. Hawai'i earned 64 total points followed by New Mexico State with 57. For the second-straight season San Jose State and Idaho finished tied for third with 42 points. Utah State was picked fifth with 40, while Nevada was picked sixth with 34. Boise State finished in seventh place with 20 points, and Fresno State earned 16 points, good for eighth. Louisiana Tech was picked ninth with nine points.

Hawai'i won their eighth-straight Western Athletic Conference tournament title last season, advancing to all 10 championship matches. They have also won their 12th-straight WAC regular season title, as they have won all conference regular season titles since joining the WAC in volleyball in 1996. The Rainbow Wahine have a record of 169-3 (.982) in conference play.

UH had an amazing streak of 114-consecutive wins in conference play that ran from Oct. 17, 1998 to Oct. 13, 2006, when the Rainbow Wahine fell to New Mexico State in five games in Las Cruces, N.M. The streak spanned seven years and 361 days, beating 17 different teams. The loss occurred on the 58th road match during the streak, on the 29th different road trip that the Rainbow Wahine had taken.

The Rainbow Wahine also saw another impressive conference streak come to an end this week as Utah State snapped UH's 108-match home conference winning streak. That streak included a 97-match WAC home winning streak, with USU posting the first-ever win by a WAC team in Honolulu.

More impressive than the dominant record that UH has in conference is the fashion they have dominated in. Of the 169 wins, 129 of them have come in three-game sweeps. The Rainbow Wahine have won 39 WAC matches in four games and just 11 in five games. UH's loss to Utah State this past week was also the first time a WAC team has swept the Rainbow Wahine in their 12 years in the conference.

In WAC Tournament play, Hawai'i is 28-2 (.933) with 18 sweeps, seven four-game wins and three five-game victories.

During the 15-point, serve-to-score era (1996-2000), Hawai'i had 15 games in which they held their opponent to just two points, nine games where they held them to one point and five conference games in which they held the other team scoreless. In the 30-point, rally-scoring era (2001-present), UH has had three games in which they held the opposing team in single digits.

Head Coach Dave Shoji

Head Coach Dave Shoji has been through it all as the head of the Rainbow Wahine volleyball program. He's seen his program go from a small upstart team to one of the most visual teams in the country.

Shoji ranks amongst the best in the coaching ranks no matter which way you look at it. He's second only to UCLA's Andy Banachowski in career victories with 953 and to Penn State's Russ Rose in career winning percentage (.849). He's also one of just five coaches that have claimed four national championships, all ranking second to Banachowski's six titles.

But the impact he has made on the state of Hawai'i could be even greater than the one he has on volleyball. Shoji's program has made women's volleyball into a staple of the islands.

Ever since the building of the Stan Sheriff Center in 1994, Hawai'i has led the nation in attendance, averaging over 7,000 a match. All Rainbow Wahine volleyball home matches are televised live throughout the islands with the majority of matches, home and away, available on the radio.

The honors have piled up for Shoji over the years. He is a nine-time conference and region Coach of the Year and was named the national Coach of the Year in 1982. Shoji was named to the list of all-time great coaches by USA Volleyball in 2002. He has also recently been inducted to Hawai'i Sports Hall of Fame and was named as the coach of the NCAA 25th Anniversary team.

In 1975, a young Shoji took over the reins of the UH women's volleyball program. He was just 28 years old with no clue that he would turn a one-year-old program into a national powerhouse for the next three decades.

The team was coming off a 9-1 campaign in 1974 that ended with the Rainbow Wahine falling to UCLA in the national title match at the AIAW Championship.

In Shoji's first four years at the helm of the program, he took the team to two more national title matches before it finally broke through to take the title in 1979 with a five-game victory over Utah State in the AIAW finals.

It was the school's first-ever team national championship and a sign of great things to come for the young program.

In 1981, Shoji became UH's first full-time coach for a women's program. He led the team to another national title, this time in the new NCAA Tournament in 1982, beating the USC Women of Troy in a come-from-behind five-game thriller.

Shoji would lead the team to another title in 1983 with a straight-set win over UCLA, becoming the first school to win back-to-back national championships.

The Rainbow Wahine again returned to the national championship match in 1987, capping a 37-2 season with a sweep of Stanford for the program's fourth national title and third NCAA title.

The team lost to Texas in the 1988 national championship match, then went through a stretch of five frustrating losses in six years to rival Long Beach State in the NCAA Regionals, holding them out of the NCAA Championships.

Hawai'i would finally make that return in 1996, dropping just one game in the first four matches of the NCAA Tournament. But another long-time nemesis of the Rainbow Wahine, Stanford, stopped UH's bid for a national title, sweeping the Rainbow Wahine in the championship match.

Under Shoji, UH volleyball finished in the Top 10 in 21 of the 26 final AVCA polls, and ranked in the top five 14 times. They have made it to the postseason in all but one year, finishing with a winning record in all 33 seasons.

The 62-year-old was also responsible for the start of the men's volleyball program in 1978. Shoji served as the men's coach at UH from 1978-85, compiling a record of 81-48, leading the team to a Western Collegiate Volleyball Conference title in 1980.

Shoji was a three-sport athlete at Upland High School in California, playing football, basketball and baseball. He then moved on to UC Santa Barbara, where he played baseball for a year, along with three years of volleyball. He earned All-America honors as a volleyball player in 1968 and '69. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1969.

After spending two years in the U.S. Army, Shoji returned to Hawai'i to coach the Kalani High School girls' and boys' volleyball teams. He then took an assistant coaching job at Punahou School.

Shoji and his wife, the former Mary Teneffos, reside in Manoa. Mary Shoji was an assistant coach for the Punahou girl's volleyball team this past year.

They have three children. Cobey, 29, works at Stanford University; Kawika, 20, and Erik, 18, play for the Stanford men's volleyball team.

The Ohio Bobcats come into the 2008 season after winning their fifth Mid-American Conference championships, falling to Purdue in the first round of last year's NCAA Tournament. The Bobcats are receiving votes in the CBS College Sports/AVCA Top 25 Preseason Poll.

Ohio is led by outside hitter Ellen Herman. She averaged 4.07 kills per game in 2007 and played for the U.S. Women's National A2 Team this summer. Meghan Simmons averaged 1.99 kills and 0.96 blocks per game in the middle last season while Jane Sytsma hit .280 with 1.92 kills and 0.91 blocks per game.

The Bobcats also return both setters that were used last season in in Michelle Jantsch and Jill Dearmond. Jantsch averaged 9.64 assists and 2.23 digs per game while Dearmond averaged 6.73 assists and 1.69 digs.

Ryan Theis takes over the head coaching position at Ohio for the first year this season. He coached at the University of Florida for the past two seasons as an assistant to Mary Wise.

This will not only be the first meeting between UH and the Ohio, but Ohio will also be facing Penn State and UCLA for the first time as well.

Scouting the Bruins

The UCLA Bruins come into the 2008 season with a preseason ranking of No. 6 in the CBS College Sports/AVCA Preseason Poll. The Bruins ended 2007 in the NCAA Regional Finals, falling to Stanford, while earning a No. 7 ranking.

The Bruins return all-but-one starter from last year's team, although kill-leader Kaitlin Sather will be out indefinitely while recovering from surgery. Nellie Spicer sets the UCLA attack, earning AVCA All-America honors in each of the last two seasons. Spicer averaged 12.92 assists, 3.07 digs, 1.19 kills and 0.76 blocks per game.

Ali Daley averaged 3.69 kills and 3.05 digs per game in 2007, with Dicey McGraw averaging 2.57 kills per game in her freshman season. Katie Mills also started in 2007, averaging 1.95 kills and 1.45 blocks per game.

Along with most of their firepower, UCLA also returns much of their defense as Jessica Fine (3.75 digs per game) and Jade Machado (3.19 dp) both return for their senior seasons.

The long rivalry between UH and UCLA goes back to 1974, the first year that Hawai'i played a collegiate schedule. Since then, the two programs have played at least once every year with the Rainbow Wahine holding a slight 34-31 lead in the all-time series. UCLA has won the last three meetings between the two schools.
