Rainbow Wahine Picked to Win 14th Straight WAC Title

UH was selected in a poll by the WAC's coaches to defend its crown in 2009 and take home its 14th-straight WAC regular-season title.

The Rainbow Wahine received eight of the nine first-place votes with New Mexico State earning the other first-place vote. Hawai'i earned 64 total points followed by New Mexico State with 57. Utah State was picked to finish third with 45 points, followed by Idaho in fourth with 41 points. Nevada was picked fifth with 37 points, while Fresno State was selected sixth with 29 points, just ahead of San Jose State with 28 points in seventh place. Boise State and Louisiana Tech rounded out the poll with 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Hawai'i won their ninth-straight WAC tournament title last season, advancing to all 11 championship matches. They have also won 13-straight WAC regular season titles, as they have won all conference regular season titles since joining the WAC in volleyball in 1996. The Rainbow Wahine have a record of 186-4 (.978) in conference play.

UH had an amazing streak of 114-consecutive wins in conference play that ran from Oct. 17, 1998 to Oct. 13, 2006, when the Rainbow Wahine fell to New Mexico State in five games in Las Cruces, N.M. The streak spanned seven years and 361 days, beating 17 different teams. The loss occurred on the 58th road match during the streak, on the 29th different road trip that the Rainbow Wahine had taken.

Danielson Named WAC Preseason Player Of The Year

The Preseason all-WAC volleyball team, as voted on by the nine head coaches, features five UH players, including sophomore Kanani Danielson, who was named WAC Preseason Player of the Year.

This is the fifth-straight season that a Rainbow Wahine player has earned the pre-season honor with All-Americans Kanoe Kamana'o (2005, 2006) and Jamie Houston (2007, 2008) each earning the honor in back-to-back years.

Hawai'i placed the most student-athletes on the 12-player team with five. Along with Danielson, seniors Aneli Cubi-Otineru and Amber Kaufman, junior Dani Mafua and sophomore Stephanie Ferrell earned preseason honors. Cubi-Otineru and Kaufman were all first-team all-WAC selections in 2008, while Mafua was a second-team pick and Ferrell was on the All-Freshman Team.

Nevada placed two players on the preseason team in juniors Lindsay Baldwin and Kylie Harrington, as did New Mexico State with seniors Krista Altermatt and Kelli Goodan. Utah State also had two selections in juniors Chelsea Fowles and Christine Morrill. Senior Anna McKinney of Idaho rounded out the preseason squad.

Five teams placed at least one player on the preseason all-WAC team. Five players are returning first-team all-WAC honorees, while five student-athletes are returning second-team picks.

Strong Preseason Schedule

Hawai'i has always scheduled tough early in the season, and 2009 is no different. The Rainbow Wahine will play six teams ranked in the AVCA Preseason Coaches Top 25 Poll during non-conference play and will play another three teams that are receiving votes in the poll.

The first two tournaments of the season are packed with teams in the Top 25. UH faces No. 25 Santa Clara and No. 9 UCLA in the first tournament of the year, followed by matches against No. 20 Saint Louis, No. 2 Texas and No. 6 California in the second tournament.

UH Welcomes Seven Newcomers

The Rainbow Wahine brought in several new student-athletes for the 2009 season, including four transfers and three freshmen. The transfers include 6-4 middle Alexis Forsythe and 6-3 outside hitter Corinne Cascioppo, giving the Rainbow Wahine added height.

Freshman middle Kristiana Tuaniga is talented and brings height and depth in the middle, giving UH another weapon. Transfers Alex Griffiths and Alexis Robins bring defense, along with freshmen Kristina Kam and Paige Mitchell.

Looking to Step Up

Two young returnees for UH are looking to make an immediate impact in 2009. Sophomore Stephanie Ferrell and redshirt freshman Brittany Hewitt will be called upon to fill two open positions left by seniors last year. Ferrell showed what she could do last season in limited action, averaging 2.27 kills per set and hitting nearly .300 in 66 sets played. Ferrell recorded a career-high 13 kills against Wyoming in her redshirt freshman year and will look to fill the outside hitter position. Hewitt is a 6-3 middle, who sat out last year, but gained valuable experience behind Amber Kaufman and Nickie Thomas. Hewitt was a two-time Idaho State Player of the Year in high school.

This Week in Rainbow Wahine History

Sept. 11-13, 1980 - The Rainbow Wahine, coming off their first national title, open with their worst start of all time, starting the season 0-3 at the Women's Games Invitational in Salt Lake City, Utah. Hawai'i comes back to win the next two matches of the invitational, then pick it up during the season, gliding to a 34-10 record.

Sept. 13, 2003 - UH defeats Stanford in an epic five-game match, ending a seven-match losing streak to the Cardinal. The match featured UH's All-American duo of Kim Willoughby (28 kills, 18 digs) and Lily Kahumoku (25 kills, 21 digs) against Stanford All-American Ogonna Nnamani (28 kills, 15 digs). But it was the contributions of Nohea Tano (13 kills, 10 digs, .650 hitting percentage) and Lauren Duggins (13 kills, seven blocks) that made the difference in the match.

Sept. 13, 2008 - Amber Kaufman breaks the school record for aces in a single match with 11, leading UH to a five-set victory over No. 9 Washington. It was UH's first win over a top-10 opponent since Dec. 2006.

HEAD COACH DAVE SHOJI

Dave Shoji has been a mainstay in both the realm of athletics in Hawai'i and in the volleyball community for the past 35 years. As Shoji is primed to become just the second women's volleyball coach in NCAA Division I history to reach 1,000 career victories this season, the legendary coach still remains one of the best in the country, leading his team to 14 consecutive conference titles and appearances in 10 of the last 11 NCAA regionals.

The honors have piled up for Shoji over the years. He is a nine-time conference and region Coach of the Year and was named the national Coach of the Year in 1982. Shoji was named to the list of all-time great coaches by USA Volleyball in 2002. He has also been inducted into Hawai'i Sports Hall of Fame and was named coach of the NCAA 25th Anniversary team.

In 1975, a young Shoji took over the reins of the UH women's volleyball program. He was just 28 years old with no clue that he would turn a one-year-old program into a national powerhouse for the next three decades.

The team was coming off a 9-1 campaign in 1974 that ended with the Rainbow Wahine falling to UCLA in the national title match at the AIAW Championship.

In Shoji's first four years at the helm of the program, he took the team to two more national title matches before he finally broke through to take the title in 1979 with a five-game victory over Utah State in the AIAW finals.

It was the school's first-ever team national championship and a sign of great things to come for the young program.

In 1981, Shoji became UH's first full-time coach for a women's program. He led the team to another national title, this time in the new NCAA Tournament in 1982, beating the USC Women of Troy in a come-from-behind five-game thriller.

Shoji would lead the team to another title in 1983 with a straight-set win over UCLA, becoming the first school to win back-to-back NCAA championships.

The Rainbow Wahine again returned to the national championship match in 1987, capping a 37-2 season with a sweep of Stanford for the program's fourth national title and third NCAA title.

The team lost to Texas in the 1988 national championship match, then went through a stretch of five frustrating losses in six years to rival Long Beach State in the NCAA Regionals, holding them out of the NCAA Championships.

UH looked primed to return to the final four in 1995, going through the season undefeated at 29-0. After winning their regional match over Arizona State, Hawai'i was set for a national championship run. But Michigan State dealt a heart-breaking blow to those plans, coming back from being down two games to none, to hold the Rainbow Wahine out of the NCAA Championships.

Hawai'i would finally make that return in 1996, dropping just one set in the first four matches of the NCAA Tournament. But another long-time nemesis of the Rainbow Wahine, Stanford, stopped UH's bid for a national title, sweeping Hawai'i in the championship match.

The Rainbow Wahine experienced another great run of success that started with the 1998 season, as transfer Heather Bown led the team from a perennial Top 25 squad and NCAA Tournament team to again a national-title contender.

Hawai'i made its way to the NCAA Regional Final in 1998 and was one of the top seeds in the 1999 tournament before a scrappy Texas A&M team beat UH in the regionals.

Following that season, Louisiana-native Kim Willoughby came to the program, joining Lily Kahumoku, who was already establishing herself as one of the best players in the country, to form a dynamic duo that would lead the team to great success for another four years. From 2000-03, the Rainbow Wahine advanced to the NCAA Championship national semifinal match three times, while Shoji's 2003 senior class became the winningest class in school history.

Under Shoji, UH volleyball finished in the Top 10 in 22 of the 27 final AVCA polls, and ranked in the top five 14 times. They have made it to the post-season in all but one year, finishing with a winning record in all 34 seasons.

The 63-year-old was also responsible for the start of the men's volleyball program in 1978. Shoji served as the men's coach at UH from 1978-85, compiling a record of 81-48, leading the team to a Western Collegiate Volleyball Conference title in 1980.

Shoji was a three-sport athlete at Upland High School in California, playing football, basketball and baseball. He then moved on to UC Santa Barbara, where he played baseball for a year, along with three years of volleyball. He earned All-America honors as a volleyball player in 1968 and '69. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1969.

After spending two years in the U.S. Army, Shoji returned to Hawai'i to coach the Kalani High School girls' and boys' volleyball teams. He then took an assistant coaching job at Punahou School.

Shoji and his wife, the former Mary Tennefos, reside in Manoa. They have three children. Cobey, 30, works at Stanford University. Kawika, 20, and Erik, 18, play for the Stanford men's volleyball team.

UH faced Stanford in the NCAA Regional Final last season, falling in straight sets to the Cardinal in Fort Collins, Colo. Stanford will be making its first trip to Honolulu since 2006, when it won the volleyball challenge, beating UH 3-0 in the final match. UH leads the all-time series 17-13.
