

Recruiting

1. At what point is a prospect considered a student-athlete? a
  - a. The day they start pre-season practice or first day of school (whichever comes first)
  - b. The day they sign an NLI and/or scholarship agreement
  - c. As soon as they commit to the institution
  - d. As soon as they become recruited

2. How can you help recruit prospects? c
  - a. Call and speak to them
  - b. Not at all
  - c. Give names to coaches
  - d. Meet them face to face ONLY at their event

3. If you already have a relationship with a prospect, can you continue that contact even though UH is heavily recruiting them? a
  - a. Yes because there is an existing relationship
  - b. You can continue contact only if you don't take advantage of it for recruiting purposes
  - c. No, you must stay at least 200 yards away from the PSA

4. A prospect has initiated a call to you, what can you say to them? b
  - a. They initiated the call so there are no restrictions as to what I can say to them
  - b. I am allowed to talk to them, just not allowed to recruit
  - c. I need to politely hang up as quickly as possible

5. The head coach told me to go and talk to a player. Seeing as it came from a coaching staff member how much trouble can that get us into? d
  - a. Official removal as a booster
  - b. Loss of scholarships
  - c. Probation
  - d. All of the above
  - e. Nothing, the coach asked me to do it so it's okay

6. I saw a golfer at the driving range who had a really good swing. I asked her if she was interested in playing for UH, she seemed excited so I gave her the coach's email address. Is this permissible? c
  - a. Yes, giving an email is not technically recruiting
  - b. Yes, I didn't have a recruiting conversation with her
  - c. No, technically you are recruiting

7. Can I friend a prospect on Facebook? Can I write on the UHADs wall to encourage them to attend UH? b
  - a. Surely not, it's considered recruiting
  - b. Yes, it's freedom of speech and not really recruiting

Employment

8. Under what circumstances can you give a prospect/current SA a job? b
  - a. No restrictions
  - b. Compliance needs to be contacted first
  - c. Prospects/current SAs are not allowed to be offered jobs by boosters

9. Under what circumstances can you employ an SA who has exhausted their eligibility? a
  - a. Paid normal, going rate
  - b. There are no restrictions because they are a former SA
  - c. Can't employ any athlete, even if they have exhausted eligibility
10. An SAs friend has asked you for a job and you pay them above going rate and you also give them a new couch for their house c
  - a. No violation because it's not for the SA
  - b. It was given to me for free so I just passed it along so it's fine, no problem here
  - c. Not permissible because it's a friend of an SA

Extra Benefits

11. I purchased 10 season tickets to UH football because I have lots of friends, but sometimes my friends have other things to do on a Saturday so sometimes I have tickets left over. Who can I give my extra tickets to? d
  - a. High school/prep school prospects
  - b. JC transfer prospects
  - c. All of the above
  - d. None of the above
12. If classes begin August 22, can I bring an athlete who wasn't recruited and has not signed an NLI to dinner at my house on August 21? c
  - a. Yes, it's the day before school and they have to be in Hawaii
  - b. Yes, they weren't recruited
  - c. No, they are still prospects
13. If I go on the road with the team, can I pick up the bill at a restaurant? a
  - a. No, but I can invite the team to my residence for a meal
  - b. There are no restrictions on the road, I can take them to a meal at a restaurant
  - c. I can only pick up the appetizers
14. I give money to the booster club I am involved in. I want to give it to a specific person/cause. How can I do that? d
  - a. I'm not allowed to give money to someone specific
  - b. I'm not allowed to give to anything specific
  - c. All monies given need to be given to the booster club's general fund
  - d. All of the above
15. My friend is not officially considered a booster but gave a current SA money to pay for his phone bill. Permissible? b
  - a. Yes, non-boosters are allowed to give SAs money
  - b. No, SAs are not allowed to accept any type of money or loans
16. I take photos of SAs at games. Can I give the SAs or their families the photos I take? b
  - a. Yes, they're only photos and not worth much, so it's okay
  - b. No, it is an extra benefit as it's only available to SAs
  - c. Who cares? The NCAA is way too strict on these types of things
17. One of the SAs looks skinny. NCAA allows coach to provide an occasional meal by a donor. Can we get 52 donors to take the SA out to dinner once a week for the year? b
  - a. Yes
  - b. No
