Thread Painting and Design May 15th & 16th, 2012

Learn about thread painting and design from Lois by doing the San Francisco Souvenir she designed for the National Seminar held in San Francisco or Lois will make line drawings from your pictures to personalize this project for you. All photos must be turned in by the deadline to Anne Hanson.

Class level: Intermediate Kit cost: $70

May 17th and 18th, 2012 – the following 2 classes will be taught simultaneously.

Wildflower Meadow is a dazzling display of nature’s spring wildflower show interpreted in canvas embroidery. Enjoy the magnificent native flora of this breathtaking mountain landscape in Crested Butte, Colorado, designated in 1989 by the Colorado Legislature as the Wildflower Capital of Colorado. This piece explores the many facets of green in a multitude of thread textures and types including wool, silk, and overdyed cottons. Piece measures: 4x6” Kit cost: $70 class level: Intermediate

Monet’s Waterlily Pond - Stand on the bank of Monet’s lily pond where surrounding tall trees and wisteria entwined bridge are reflected in the quiet water. Silk threads capture the richness of this lovely scene interpreted in canvas embroidery. Explore a diverse palette of green hues, a selection of stitches and a thread blending technique using many thread combinations to create the many colors of the realistic pond reflection Piece measures: 7x7” Kit cost: $85 Class Level: Intermediate
