

The Prodigal Son

Directions: The objective of the game is to get to the father hugging his lost son. Place your markers on the START square. The player rolls the die and moves that number on the board. The player then follows the directions on the square they landed on. The first player to land on the picture of the father hugging his lost son, wins. (The players do not have to get the exact number to land on the picture.) Continue playing to find out who comes in second, third, fourth, etc. place.
