

The river turned red and no one could drink the water.

1

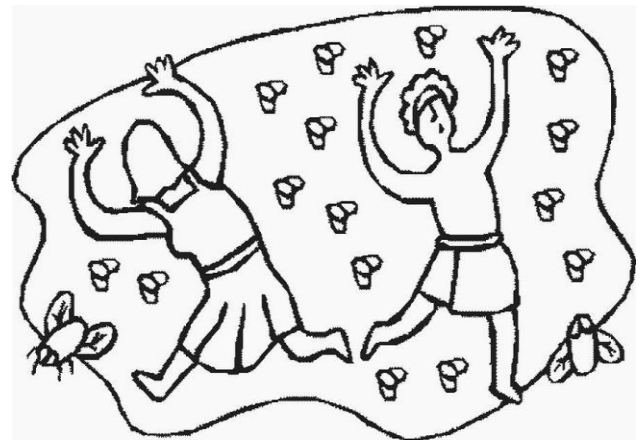

Thousands of frogs swarmed out of the river and into all the Egyptian homes.

2

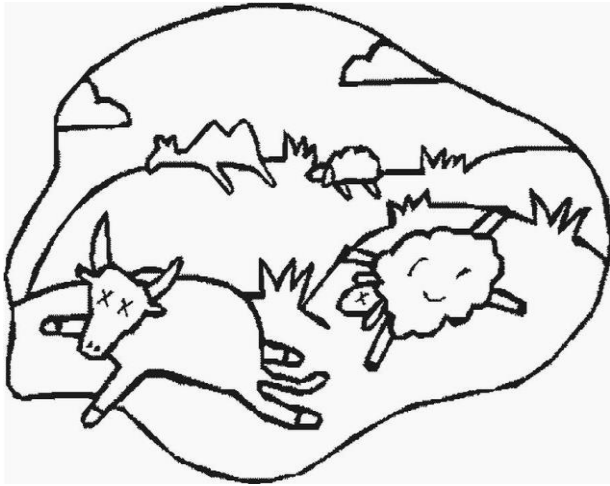

Swarms of gnats tormented the Egyptians and their animals.

3

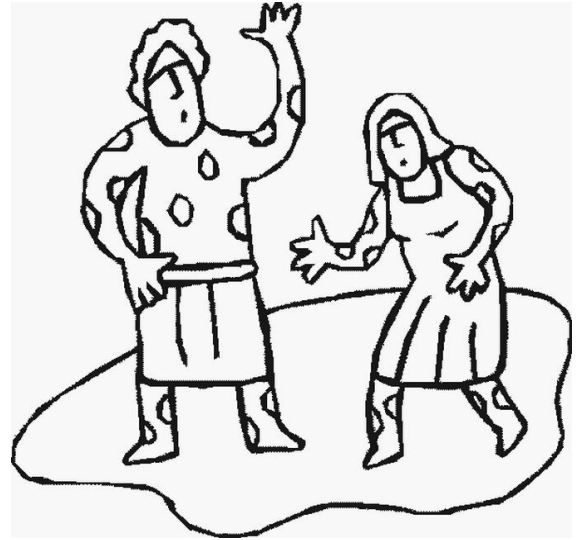

Clouds of horrible flies filled Egyptian homes.

4

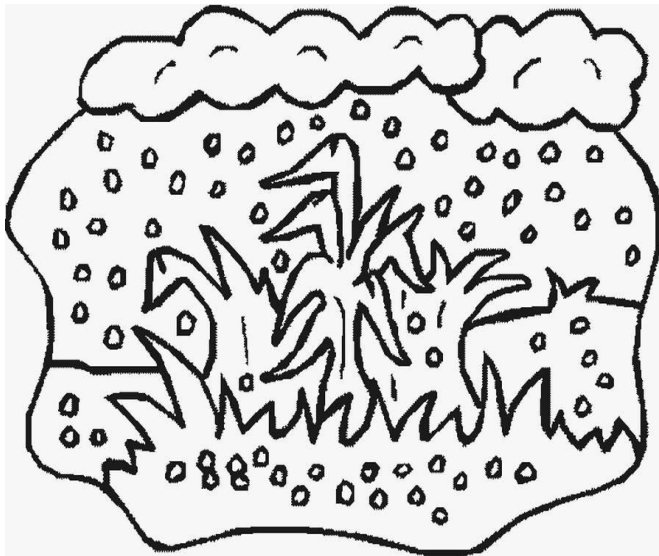

The Egyptian animals began to die.

5

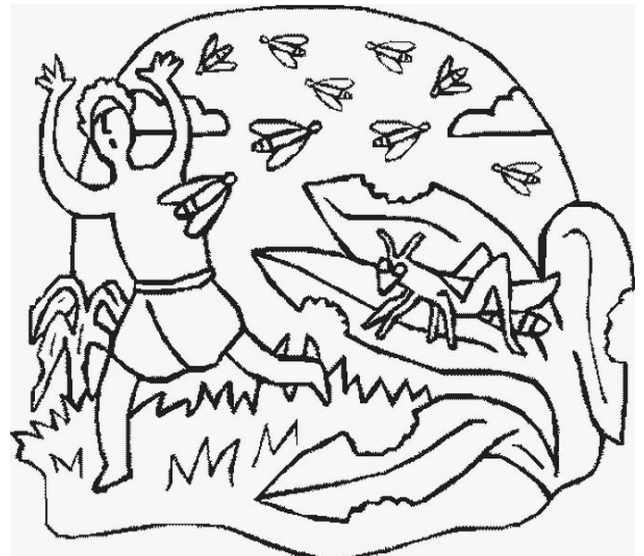

Egyptian people were ill with horrible sores on their bodies.

6

After that, there was a fearful hailstorm.

7

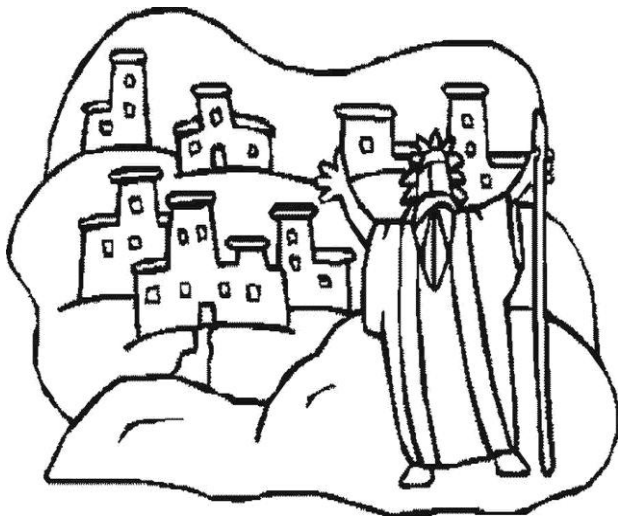

Great clouds of locust ate up what the hailstorm had left.

8

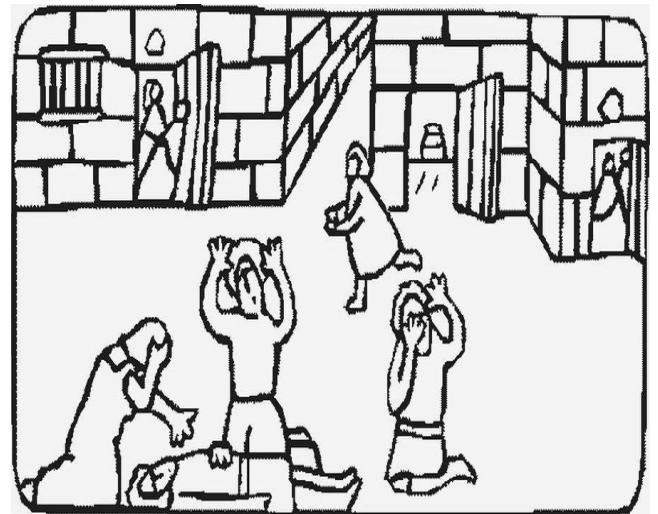

The Plagues

Colored by: _____

There was horrible darkness for three days that covered all of Egypt.

The worse plague of all was when the eldest child of every Egyptian family died one night.