Beach Theme July Gathering was Hot!!

Hats abounded at the July Gathering held at Calvary UMC in Waldorf. The pot luck featured Fried Chicken and Cold Cuts along with side dishes and desserts. There was lots of food to share with all. We were all thankful for being inside with air conditioning as this was a really hot day!

A hat contest was held with many in the community wearing their silliest beach hats. The judges were Ed Priest and Judy Lindley (because they did not wear a hat) and the winners from First to Third Places were:

- 1 – PJ Pitonyak (third on the left)
- 2 – Rich Weaver (last on the left)
- 3 – A Tie between Don and Cindy Gellar (first and second on the left)

You can see by the picture that these were some crazy hats!

A Word From Our New Community Lay Leader

Greetings!

I am honored to be greeting you as your newly elected Community Lay Director to the Board. We have five new Board members and it is our hope to keep you all better informed about what is happening in our Community. We are even planning a Board Retreat to come up with ideas to build up our gatherings. If you have any ideas that would help us, please send me an email so that we can discuss them. We are always open to your input. This is not just the "Board's" Community, but it belongs to all of us. We all have a say as to how it is run.

Our next several Gatherings will be held at Mt. Zion UMC, 27108 Mt. Zion Church Rd., Mechanicsville, MD. Come and join us there. Just follow Rt. 5 through to Rt. 235. It will be on your left as you go south. Coming up from the south, of course, it will be on your right. It's a lovely church, in a lovely location. We'll be making agape for the upcoming Women's Walk in November.

Unfortunately, we had to cancel the Men's Walk for October. Our policy for all Walks is to have a minimum of 12 pilgrim applications by a certain date. If we don't receive that number, we cancel. Brothers and Sisters, we should not be waiting to sponsor folks for a walk until just before they are going to take place. God already has their names. We have to do our part and pray for the persons God is calling and go and ask them to attend. Once we have the application, the Pilgrim Application Committee can then call them and we'll have our Walk ready to go. There will be no wondering whether a Walk will be or not. Let's do our part. Yes, we need Team members. But, we also need the sponsors. We are all in this together to help spread and build up God's Word and Spirit. Let's see what we can do throughout the rest of this year! Let's work together.

I look forward to seeing you on September 18 at 5:00 p.m. where we will sing and praise the Lord and commune together! Praise God!!

YSIC,
June M. Fauber

SYTYCT

No, it's not the next great reality television dance show, but it certainly could showcase the remarkable talents possessed by the members of the Southern Maryland Emmaus Community. That's right, it's the latest edition of So You Think You Can Team.

Unlike its popular television counterparts, there are no judges, and no real auditions. All that is required is a servant's spirit, and completion of your own Walk to Emmaus. It is true, you will go through extensive training, and you'll become fast friends with your brothers and sisters as you learn more about how the weekends are conducted. And while you may not get a mirror ball trophy or a championship title, you will receive blessings far in excess of your expectations.

Team applications are good for one year, and you can find them on the Southern Maryland Emmaus website: www.somdemmaus.org. Remember, you must have attended a 4th Day Seminar in order to team.

Board Notes

A decision was made to cancel the Fall Men's Walk because only two applications had been received, and the minimum of 12 pilgrims was not met by the deadline of August 18.

An email was sent recently to alert community members that only 6 women pilgrims are able to walk for the women's Fall weekend. Unless the minimum of twelve is met by the cutoff date which is September 8. Community members are asked to prayerfully consider sponsorship.

There are two vacancies for important jobs that are in need of community volunteers: Supply Coordinator, and Assistant Agape Coordinator. Please contact June Fauber if you have questions or feel led to serve in either of these roles.

Southern Maryland Emmaus is now on Facebook! Our new Communications Chairperson, Rick Pitonyak, has already moved us into the 21st century! Thanks Rick! If you haven't yet gotten an invitation to be our friend, contact Rick!

The September monthly gathering will be held on September 18 at Mt. Zion UMC in Mechanicsville, MD. Directions will be sent via PPOCs. Potluck will be at 5pm; followed by a gathering at 6pm. Agape will be made for the fall women's walk, so please plan to bring materials and/or help support the weekend in fun and meaningful way!

New Board members elected in the annual election included: Carol Barton, Linda Horty, Dru McLaughlin, Brenda Smith-Thomas, and Karen Smith. Connie Wells was also selected by the Board, and will be filling a 2 year term from a Board vacancy. In addition, Steve Larsen joins the Board as the Community Spiritual Director for a 1 year term. We hope to have an Assistant Community Spiritual Director aboard soon. Congratulations and welcome to the Board!

Tell us about your walk

Sure we get to hear a little about someone's walk experience during the gatherings as part of a 4th Day Talk, but wouldn't it be interesting to hear about some of the often overlooked moments that made your weekend special? Maybe you have something to share in the following categories:

- The funniest thing that happened to me on my weekend
- The strangest food experience of my weekend (you know we've all had them)
- Snoring 101 (how you survived that noisy night - tricks for the novice sleeper)
- My favorite piece of agape (the one you're still wearing)

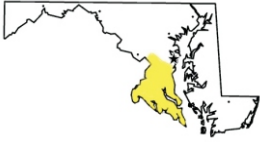

Our weekends are powerful experiences of connecting with the Lord, but there are also those lighter moments that we rarely talk about. How about sharing a story or two with your brothers and sisters. Send your thoughts to the editor at dbrennan6@verizon.net.

Lastly, Communications will be under the leadership of Rick Pitonyak, with Sheila Hanson assisting on Community Directory and Shelley Wilson continuing her work to manage the volunteer database.

Thank you to outgoing Board members, and a special welcome and thank you to new Board members who begin their three year term! We appreciate your willingness to serve and make a difference!

Community members are critical to the success of everything the Board does! Many volunteers are needed to serve on various committees such as community events, agape, team selection, communications, etc. We thank the many people who faithfully serve in many different areas already— people like Pat Goodwin who manages the Community Directory, and Dan Brennan who is our Southern Maryland Emmaus Newsletter Editor, and Pat Knowland who serves as the Southern Maryland Emmaus Webmaster— THANK YOU! We depend on you and thank you for the ongoing service to the community you provide!
