

What makes a great Club meeting?

1. The meeting begins and ends on time
2. All meeting participants arrive on time and are prepared
3. Members and guests alike are greeted as they arrive and are made to feel welcome
4. The program is fast-paced, interesting and enjoyable
5. Transitions between segments are smooth
6. All members present have an opportunity to participate
7. Evaluations are helpful and constructive and contribute to members personal growth and improvement
8. Members achievements are recognized
9. Members are enthusiastic and enjoy the Club, and it shows.