The March 10, 2009 meeting of the Bolivar Liberator Chapter of the Missouri Pilots Association was held in Jack Reynolds' new hangar just east of the city of Bolivar. Jim Shawley led in the Pledge of Allegiance; John Savage led blessed the food and fellowship.

Present were: Jim and Mary Shawley, Bob Larimer, Sam Swihart, Duane and Kay Smith, John and Nancy Savage and their guest Tim Hager, John and Ann Bennett, Marc and Shari Popejoy, Charlie and Connie Powell, Rex and Linda Smith and their guest Jim Berlin, Robert Eckert II, Charles and Frances Stauffer, Don Baker, Dean Jefferis, Wendell Jones, Roni Burns, Jim Raney, Nick Maas, Jack Reynolds and Glenda Darnell, and Frank and Gwen Stretesky.

Dinner was provided by Fresh Ideas, the food services vendor at Southwest Baptist University, and consisted of chicken enchiladas and salad, with lemon bars for dessert.

The minutes from the February meeting were approved as submitted; Treasurer Pete Mosca was not available, having to work; however, he relayed the following grand total in the Bolivar Liberator Chapter's account: $3182.49.

Flyouts: Jack proposed going to Hot Springs, AR, for a time at the races; a possible date will be March 28; the rain date would be April 4. On April 1, State Aviation Day will be at JEF; from 4 to 6:00 pm the reception will be held. The state has requested that of the $200.00 donated last month $100.00 be transferred to help defray the costs of State Aviation Day. Jonathon Rimington moved, and Sam Swihart seconded that we allow it to be so; the motion passed unanimously.

Arlene Ferguson, of the Released-Time Christian Education organization has requested we arrange for our annual rewards/Young Eagles flights. The best dates would be May 2.

We are planning a WINGS training program to coincide with a poker run on April 18.

March 28, in Columbia, Lockheed-Martin will be sponsoring a series of seminars concerning T/O and landings, CAP, and other subjects.
