

The Bolivar Liberator Chapter of the Missouri Pilot's Association
October 12, 2004

On October 12th, the Bolivar Chapter of the Missouri Pilots Association was held at The Plane Café located in the Bolivar Municipal Airport's FBO.

Duane Smith said the prayer then led the Pledge of Allegiance.

After another fine meal of chicken strips, smashed potatoes, cream gravy, corn, rolls, salad and chocolate cake, President Pollard called the meeting to order.

President Pollard introduced our three newest members, Julie and Sharon Bond and Kerrick Tweedy (we had 21 members and 2 guests). Our Co-Secretaries were unable to attend and the minutes from the September meeting were unavailable so we could not approve last months minutes. Pete Mosca gave the Treasure's Report.

Our Scholarship recipient, Kevin Barnhouse, has not started his lessons yet but the aircraft he will be using was delivered to the Bolivar Airport last week. A discussion was brought up about the amount of the Scholarship and it was agreed that the Chapter would provide $800.00 and Bolivar Aviation would donate $200.00.

Wayne Olomon reported that the FAA re-certified him as a Safety Counselor and he is also working on putting together a "Wings Weekend".

Dean Jefferis reported that on Saturday, October 16th, a Fly-Out to Turkey Mountain, on Thursday, November 11th, the annual Veterans Day "National Cemetery/Veterans Cemetery Fly Over" in Springfield is scheduled at 10:30am. Dean also would like for the pilots to give airplane rides to all veterans. On Saturday, November 13th, a Fly-Over of the Buffalo Parade is also planned.

Duane Smith reported that Kerrick Tweedy had created a Web Page for the Bolivar Chapter, Kerrick gave a brief description of the particulars relating to the Web Page and agreed to maintain it and a link from the Mopilots.org to the Bolivar Web Page would be setup.

Rex Warren, FBO Manager, announced a 15¢ per gallon fuel discount on Saturdays and Sundays.

Wayne Olomon introduced our guest speaker, Clyde Buckles and his wife Hilda. Mr. Buckles gave us highlights of his career ranging from being a Crew Chief on C97's and C130's to Dock Chief to Quality Assurance Chief. He touched on his experiences aboard the C97's in SE Asia and the Pacific Rim on runs ranging from "troop hauls" to in flight refueling of aircraft. He also touched on his experiences aboard the C130's in Latin and South Americas doing troop hauls and air drops associated with drug eradication.

Next month, Brady Terry from Wings Avionics in Fayetteville is our scheduled speaker.

President Pollard asked for a motion to adjourn the meeting, Duane Smith made the motion, Pete Mosca seconded, motion passed at 7:55pm.

Respectfully submitted,
Duane and Kay Smith
