The October 13th meeting of the Bolivar Liberator Chapter of the Missouri Pilots Association was held at Jack's hangar, near M17. Present were: Shaun Matney, Jonathan Rimington, Charlie and Connie Powell, Don and Pat Bakeer, Robert Eckert II and Robert Eckert III, John and Ann Bennett, Steve Marshall, Gene Engledow, Wendell Jones, Dean Engledow, John and Nancy Savage, Rob Parsons, Jim and Mary Shawley, Dave Strader and Kimberly Roberts, Jack Reynolds, and Wally Edwards.

Following Don Baker offering thanks for our food and John Savage leading us in the Pledge of Allegiance, we enjoyed a wonderful meal put together by many of the ladies of the club.

The minutes were approved as presented; there was no treasurer's report.

Fly-outs: Besides the rain date for the Rebel's Bluff Bar-B-Que on the 17th of October, there is an informal fly-in at Gaston's on October 24-25, and the Ercoupe Owners Club will be holding their fly-in at Point Lookout (PLK) on

There was no old or new business; consequently, we adjourned, and enjoyed the FAAST WINGS presentation from John Arvin. John is a multiple-rated pilot who currently flies the Citation Ovation for Jack Henry Associates.

John shared some important tips for minimizing runway incursions, including:

1. See the "big picture"
2. Transmit clearly
3. Listen carefully
4. Copy clearances
5. Maintain situational awareness
6. Admit when lost
7. Maintain a sterile cockpit
8. Understand signs, lights and markings
9. Never assume
10. Follow procedures
