

Anniston PAW PRINTS

Volume 3, Issue 2

August 10, 2009

A ROARING START- School is off to a great start! Buses are running, teachers are teaching, and students are learning. Thanks, Parents for all of your help getting our children ready to learn.

At Anniston we believe every minute of our children's education is extremely important. Students need to be ready to learn and in class when the 7:30 bell rings. Please help us to teach your child the value of being on time by making sure they arrive to class before the tardy bell rings.
