

2008-2009 Commodities For Seniors

Boxes of commodities for the residents of the High Rise that are distributed every other month.

WF Exchange Members Paul Perez, Kyle Handegard, and Kevin Skoog, Lonna Skoog, Activities Director at the High Rise.

Unloading the commodities from the trucks before delivering them to the residents.

Coordinating the list of where the deliveries need to be made in the building.

One of the Community Service projects that the West Fargo Exchange Club participates in is to help the West Fargo High Rise distribute commodities to the residents of the building. Commodities are dropped at the High Rise once every two months. Lonna Skoog, Activities Director, coordinates the distribution to the residents that qualify for these boxes and bags of food. Our club helps with the delivery of these boxes and bags to these residents. Members volunteering this year include:

- August 21 – Mike Reitan and his Boy Scout Troup
- October 23 – Kevin Skoog
- December 11 – Kyle Handegard, Paul Perez, Kevin Skoog
- February 19 – Kevin Skoog and Robert Brodshaug
- April 23 – Kevin Skoog and Robert Brodshaug
- June 18 – Mike Reitan and his Boy Scout Troop

Kevin Skoog coordinates the scheduling of volunteers from our club to assist in the delivery of commodities.
