End of Event details: Syracuse Crunch Hockey players Andy Canzanello, Andrew Murray and Alexandre Picard served as celebrity bartenders at Dodester's Bar and Grill from 5-7 p.m. on Wednesday, February 28th 2007. All tips generated benefit the Central New York Cat Coalition. Sponsored by Labatts and courtesy of Onondaga Beverage Corp and Syracuse Crunch Hockey, Live the Game - Hockey USA t-shirts game tickets, and numerous other Labatts promotional items were presented as gratuities to the big, bigger and biggest tippers. Everyone received something other than a frosty beverage. A Team Autographed practice Hockey Stick was auctioned to the highest bidder, that bid came via phone by a husband at work to his wife.
Then to the delight of every female hockey fan present, the evening concluded with the Auction of the Hockey Jerseys worn to the event by the Celebrity Bartenders, right off their backs.

A total of $1204.00 was raised to support the low or no-cost Spay/Neuter Program of the Central New York Cat Coalition - an all-volunteer organization near and dear to the hearts of the co-owners of Dodesters. Several pregnant cats and young kittens have been abandoned or managed to find their way to us or to our basement. Through the programs offered by CNYCC, ALL cats have been spayed; neutered and vaccinated, most were adopted to forever home or are now safe in foster care.

Those that do remain out doors have shelter and are fed nutritious food at a price we can easily afford. We are grateful to all who supported our fundraising efforts and for the opportunity to help "even a little" with the cat overpopulation problem.
