Celebrity Bartending Series Continues at Dodester's on February 20

Syracuse, NY (February 7, 2006)

The Syracuse Crunch, along with Labatt's, announced today that the Labatt's Celebrity Bartending series will continue on Monday, February 20 at Dodester's.

Crunch players Aaron Johnson, Marc Methot and Joe Motzko will serve as celebrity bartenders at Dodester's from 5 – 7 p.m. on Monday, February 20. Dodester's is located at 120 St. Marks Ave. (at the very end of Fayette St. by Strathmore paints).

For directions call 488-2411.

All tips generated by the players that night will be donated to the Central New York Cat Coalition. CNYCC is an all volunteer run organization whose objective is to help reduce the feral, stray cat overpopulation in CNY by non lethal means. Through their feed, spay, neuter and vaccinate program they manage the health of, find homes for or improve the living conditions of the homeless cat population. The organization does not have a shelter and the success of the program depends entirely on the volunteers and support of the public.

The Crunch host Binghamton on Friday, February 10 for a 7:30 p.m. game. Tickets are available by calling the Crunch office at (315) 473-4444, stopping by the Oncenter box office located on the State Street side of the War Memorial or by calling TicketMaster at (315) 472-0700.
