

PARP KICK OFF EVENT

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 25th

7:00pm GP ROOM

Mark your calendars as your PTA is pleased to bring you the Transformation Show! presented by Christopher Agostino to kick off our Parents As Reading Partners (PARP) program.

Parents As Reading Partners is a state-wide program designed to involve parents (and other significant adults in your child's life) in fostering a love of reading in children. PARP has been moved to October this year, and your information packet will be sent home later this month.

Our kick-off show is definitely something to see. Christopher Agostino is a storyteller who tells original and traditional tales in his own unique style by painting the characters and scenery on the faces of our own Lockhart students picked from audience volunteers. You may have seen his work on the faces of guests at the Bronx Zoo or Coney Island Aquarium.

We will be serving PARPcorn and SodaPARP to all those who attend. We ask that you send in the reply on the bottom of the page to the PTA mailbox by Friday, September 19th. Tickets will be sent home via your child's folder so please keep an eye out for them. We have limited space so reserve your tickets today. We hope to see you there.
