Highwater Hog Roast Saturday, October 18, 4:00p.m.

Hi everyone. Did you know that another church has started doing a hog roast/auction? I know, they saw a good thing and tried to copy it. But that just shows us that we DO have something unique and wonderful and so it's time to once again roll up our sleeves and get busy on the fall hog roast and auction.

- 1) Suppliers/Contributors - I'll put a sheet on the bulletin board. If you're going to contact a particular supplier, please add their name and yours so we don't make double efforts. After you've made contact, please add what items they've contributed. It will help us track who's doing what to whom!!
- 2) Auction items - start going through your things now and getting them in order. If you're like me you wait until the last moment and do the "fire drill" thing. It's much more pleasurable when you're not rushed.
- 3) We have a wonderful problem. Because of the quantity of items in the auction, it takes longer and longer to get through it and people lose interest and leave. To expedite the auction, we're considering putting the smaller, less expensive items on the market table and reserving auction space for the bigger things. And NO I don't mean removing the delicious baked goods lovingly made by our Highwater baking experts. Are you kidding?!
- 4) Sign up sheets. If you haven't signed up for a particular committee or want to, please put your name on the sheets on the bulletin board. We could use your help. Many hands make the work light.
- 5) Lastly, don't forget that as a church we should do what we can to lead people to Christ. And what better and easier way to introduce them to Him is by inviting them to our hog roast and to worship with us as well. Can you invite someone new this year?

If you have comments or want to discuss, get in touch with Nancy or I at tsiegel@hughes.net or nsiegel@hughes.net or at 892-3525Blessings.

Check out the carpet samples in the front pews.
There are new samples to look at that better compliment our stained glass windows.

Help Wanted:

Low hours, great work environment, wonderful co-workers and no IRS Form 1040 to mess with (zero pay)! The Highwater Memorial Endowment Fund Advisory Council is in need of an individual interested in the long-term financial health of our church. The Council oversees the Endowment Fund and encourages support of the fund by the Congregation. Time required 1 or 2 two hour meetings a year. Please contact: Bryan Payne, Mary Dodsworth, Galen Gault, Melanie Shipley or Jack Schmidt for more information.

The Church Highway signs are up! We now have four signs up around the area - north of the church on Route 661; south of the church on Route 661; and two signs east of the church - one on Dutch Lane and one on Route 657. Thanks to Tom Lake Sr., George Freas, Bob Rowe, Dave Nash, and Tom Siegel for their help in getting these signs in and up! There is one more sign to go, and we're looking at putting it west of the church, on Route 62 (where the Camp Agape sign is just before Dutch Lane).
