Pastor Ed's Corner

Dear Friends in Christ,

It seems to me that a continuing struggle as we seek to follow Christ is trying to find our calling in life. While we often think in terms of occupation and location, perhaps a more important issue is one of character—the being that undergirds doing. “Lord who do You want me to be?”

In Ephesians 4, Paul wrote, “I, therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you to walk worthy of the calling with which you were called”(v.1). He followed this with three “be’s”, as one translation renders it: be humble, be gentle, be patient, “bearing with one another in love” (v. 2 NIV). Paul wrote this from prison, a difficult place where he continued to live out his calling from God.

Oswald Chambers said: “Consecration is not the giving over of the calling in life to God, but the separation from all other callings and the giving over of ourselves to God, letting His providence place us where He wills—in business, or law, or science; in workshops, in politics, or in drudgery. We are to be there working according to the laws and principles of the kingdom of God.

When we are the right people before God, we can do whatever task He sends, wherever He puts us. In so doing, we discover and affirm His calling for us.

Cheryl and I will be looking for you in worship next Sunday.

God bless you,

Pastor Ed

Are You Active ?

Are you an active member -
The kind that would be missed?

Or are you just contented

That your name is on the list?

Do you attend the meetings

And mingle with the flock?

Or do you stay at home

To criticize and knock?

Do you take an active part

To help the work along?

Or are you satisfied

To only just belong?

When the business session comes around

Do you pretend to be sick?

Then leave the work to just a few

And talk about the “clique”?

Think this over, member

You know right from wrong.

Are you an active member,

Or do you just belong?

WISH to Quilt Guild , Wednesday Oct 13, 7:00p.m.

Wish to Quilt Guild meets the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month. The 1st meeting is held at Highwater Church and usually has a class. The 2nd meeting is informal and is held in member's homes where we bring our projects to sew and share.

We will offer a Beginner's Quilt Class this fall. It will be held at Highwater Church on October 13th, and November 10th. The class will be led by Elaine Tulloss and each beginner will have a Guild member as a mentor. On September 8th, we introduced the project. There will not be a charge for the class, but you will need to buy your own fabric and a Quilting Book/Pattern. You will also need some basic sewing tools. You can sew the project with a sewing machine or by hand. It will be your choice. Those members not taking the class are encouraged to attend and bring their projects to sew, show and tell. There is still time to get in on the beginner class! For more information, please contact Elaine Tulloss (892-3577) or Janine Shipley (892-2722).
