

Brother Hibernians,

Again, we are about to celebrate the feast of our Great Patrick. During the last few decades, the term “Irish Empire” has been in use. It is a reference to the original work done by Patrick in our minute homeland and then the work of hundreds of thousands of Irish Missionaries who have gone to the Four Corners with the Gospel. How fortunate we are to come from such a heritage.

While we celebrate, a grim note must be made. It is reported that there are 40 million of us Irish in the U.S. If we are loyal members of the Empire, how can we explain the murder of 50 million pre-born humans via surgical abortions?

May we do better?
