John & Gao Foua Jordan Join CLM As Our Newest Associates

John Jordan grew up in the South as the son of a Baptist pastor. At the age of 7, he professed his faith in Jesus Christ. That began a process that is still taking place.

He finished high school in Atlanta and decided to attend Toccoa Falls College. While there the influences on his life began to form him. He decided that he would have no major life direction other than to love God and to love people.

It wasn't until after college that Gao Foua and John's story began to intertwine. Though he thought that Gao Foua was out of his league, he got up the guts to ask her out and she agreed. And the rest is history.

The summer John spent with the Aliquippa

Impact team, really placed a burden on his heart for this city. He realized that the people of Aliquippa need so much love, and they need Christ.

Gao Foua's story is similar in some ways and quite different in others. She was also born into a good Christian family, where her father was a pastor. She was eight years old, and living in Rhode Island when she accepted Jesus into her life.

When she was nine years old, her parents moved the family to serve as missionaries in Thailand.

After graduating from high school in 2002, Gao Foua moved back to the U.S. and started college at Toccoa Falls College. At Toccoa, the more time she spent with the Lord, the more He kept showing her passages speaking on helping the poor, hurt, and widowed. She began to pray and feel a burden for these people.

Gao Foua and John are here in Aliquippa now to share Christ with people, by loving them any way possible. They both know that the Lord will provide for them marvelously as they start their CLM ministry.

Thomas G. Miller Remembered

Board Member Bob Miller's father, Tom Miller went to be with the Lord on September 19th. Dr. Paul Dordal, Executive Director of CLM, conducted the memorial service at Crestmont Alliance Church. During the call to respond, 14 people, of the more than 100 in attendance, received Christ as their Savior.

Memorial contributions were directed to the CLM Building Fund and to date more than $1,500.00 has been received. CLM wishes to thank all who honored the remembrance of Tom Miller at the memorial service and all who contributed to CLM through memorial contributions.
