2010 National Jamboree

Patch Design Contest

In celebration the 100th Anniversary of Scouting, the Minsi Trails Council National Jamboree Committee is opening our 2010 National Jamboree shoulder patch design to the Scouts within our council. Designs are not limited to Scouts attending the Jamboree. Any Cub Scout, Boy Scout, and Venture Crew member may enter. There will be five patch designs selected. Four will be used by the Troops representing the council at the Jamboree and the fifth by Council Scouter's serving on staff at the Jamboree.

Design requirements:

Patch size is 2 1/2" high by 5" wide.

The theme of the patch is "Celebrating 100 years of Scouting in America".

Must include the wording Minsi Trails Council BSA, Pennsylvania and New Jersey (PA NJ), 2010 National Jamboree, and include a Boy Scout symbol (fleur de lis).

Limited to 9 colors, including background and patch border.

The contest winners will be presented with a special prize and introduced along with their patch design at a 2010 Minsi Trails Council 100th Anniversary event.

Patch designs must be received by September 10, 2009. Please contact the Minsi Trails Council 2010 National Jamboree staff advisor Todd Heyn 610-465-8576 or email theyn@minsitrails.com with any questions.

Open to all registered Minsi Trails Council youth who will be under age 18 as of the first day of the 2010 National Jamboree. Entries must be received before September 10, 2009. No more than one entry per person. In the design process, remember that designs may be altered to conform to standard patch sizes and shapes. No more than 9 colors may be used in the patch, including the border and background. Entries should be submitted either digitally or as a hand drawing.
