3. MATHIAS² SHEPLER (*JOHN*¹) was born Abt. 1740 in Rhenesh Palatinate, Germany, and died 25 Apr 1822 in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. He married MARGARET HOUSEMAN. She was born 1754 in Yorkshire, England.

Notes for MATHIAS SHEPLER:

Matthias Shepler and his two brothers Peter and Philip, along with their father John (Shiplor/Shipler) came to America from Germany about 1755 and settled in Virginia. In 1783 John sold his land in Virginia and they all moved to Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. Matthias took possession of 400 acres that included the highest point in Rostraver Township and the hill became known as Sheplers Hill.[From, The Houseman Family by Harry Houseman Frazier] note: Mathias and his brothers moved from Frederick Co. VA to Rostraver Twp., PA abt. 1772 or 1773 while their father joined them in 1783.

Shepler, Mathias, abstract of will, written August 13, 1821, recorded April 23, 1823. Executors Issac and Jacob Shepler, witnesses Robert Bermingham and John Scott.. Gives land, livestock and farm implements to son Jacob on conditions he pay funeral expenses and all other bequests. He is also to provide for his mother and if he fails to do so or if she chooses to live with any other of her children Jacob shall pay her board and living expense. Gives his house and all furniture therein to his wife Margaret while she lives. Gives following children each one dollar: John's heirs, Margaret, Philip and Abraham. Gives two hundred and fifty dollars each to Mary, Catherine and Issac. From Mary's bequest is to be deducted, "She giving credit out of it on a receipt for nearly twenty-four pounds I paid to her in the State of Ohio."

Gives a feather bed and "some furniture" to granddaughter, Mary Shepler.
(Names throughout this will are spelled "Shipler".)

Notes for MARGARET HOUSEMAN:

The following is an authors note about Mathias Shepler and Margaret Houseman which comes from the book, " The Houseman Family " author Harry Houseman Frazier, Tiffin, Ohio: 1937

The reader is doubtless curious about the name Margaret Houseman, who married Mathias Shepler. The author has been even more curious, but is unable to place her with certainty. It would seem that she was the daughter of John Houseman, a sister of the first Christopher, but for one fact; viz: the supposed year of her birth was 1754 and this would make her twenty-two years younger than her brother. While this is not impossible, it is somewhat improbable, Deeds,wills and other public records of Westmoreland and Fayette Counties do not indicate there was any other family of Housemans in western Pennsylvania before the Revolution. If we were to prove that the first John Houseman had children.

4. JANE (NANCY JANE) AKA AGNES² SHEPLER (*JOHN*¹) was born Bet. 1740 to 1755 in probably Germany, and died 1810 in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland Co., Pennsylvania. She married JOHN CORWIN Abt. 1773, son of UNKNOWN CORWIN. He was born Bet. 1735 to 1745 in probably Long island, New York, and died 1806 in Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., Pennsylvania.

Notes for JANE (NANCY JANE) AKA AGNES SHEPLER:

Birth estimate is based on the dates of her brothers.

Although not proven, substancial evidence relating to the wife or wives of John Corwin of Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., PA continues to mount. John's oldest son John of whom little is known appears to have been born abt. 1765 before his father would have removed to Westmoreland Co., PA in the early 1770's.

In discussing the name "Agnes" with Janice Patterson Rosenthal, we both agree "Agnes" was used as a nickname for "Nancy" in 1700's to the early 1800's. In information from Andrew "Andy" Likins. John Corwin married Jane Shiplor/Shepler who was the sister of the three Shepler brothers, Mathias, Philip and Peter who moved to Westmoreland Co., (Rostraver township) in the early 1770's, most likely from childrens given birth dates the year was 1773, from Frederick Co. Virginia. Being as John Corwin spelled "Corene" in the 1790 census, and "Corwin" in 1806 tax records, and his wife's name spelled "Agnes Currin" in the 1810 census lived in the exact same area as the three Shepler brothers, it seems to be true the John Corwin who married "Jane" Shiplor/Shepler and the John Corwin ("Corene" 1790 census) in Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., PA are the same man and his wife named "Jane" in the Eckstein Papers from Case Western University archives and "Agnes" in the 1810 census are the same woman, leading to the conclusion John Corwin actually married Nancy Jane or Anna Jane Shiplor/Shepler sister of Mary Margaret Shiplor/Shepler and Malinda Magdalene Shiplor/Shepler, all sisters of the three brothers Mathias, Philip and Peter Shepler, provided the supposition of "Agnes" being the nickname for "Nancy" can be proven.

Only one daughter of John Corwin and Agnes? or Nancy Jane? Shepler has been identified and her name was "Jane". She married William Patterson. (Gene Smock).

Notes for JOHN CORWIN:

From a document received from the Case Western Reserve University Archives to Andrew Likins,

"Jane Shipler married John Corwin, whose sister Sally married Zophar Cairnes, a brother of Elizabeth, wife of Butler Case"

Email from Janice Patterson-Rosenthal 04 Oct 2005

(in part)

My sister Jo and I went to PA 1st May and didn't find out much we didn't already know, except we did find in the basement of the Westmoreland Co., courthouse original tax books (never been microfilmed) and learned that John Corwin of Rostraver probably had a son Peter. This Peter "Curren" was "Single" in 1802 (first year of the extant records) and was listed right beside John "Curren" in Rostraver. Peter was probably at least 21 years of age in 1802, so born 1782 at the latest. Peter is gone by 1806. In 1806 John's last name is spelled for the first time, as "Corwin." I must tell you I was pretty excited to see that. This line of Corwins is so little-known that I have wondered in the past if they were actually Currans or something, and then later (erroneously) adopted the name "Corwin".

Anyway, John must have died between the time of the 1806 tax list, and the 1807 list because in 1807 only John's widow, Agnes, and son Morris are listed (for the first time).in 1807 their surname is spelled "Currin." John's name is gone by 1807, so I believe he died in 1806; this is when his son Morris and his widow Agnes first shown in the tax rolls.

1808 list shows Morris Currin and Agnes Currin, "widow."

1809 list shows Morris Currin and Agness Currin

1810 list shows only Morris Currin. I believe Agnes died in 1810-- sometime between the time of the 1810 Rostraver census on which she appears (no date on these census pages), and the 1810 Rostraver tax list. 1811-thru 1816 lists Morris Currin/Curran (spelled different ways) is the only Corwin in Rostraver. 1817 list: Morris is not found. This agrees with statement on p. 813 of History of Fayette County, by Ellis in which it is stated that Morris moved to Belle Vernon at this time.

By the way, in 1804 the occupation of John "Curran" is listed as "Mechanick." A researcher friend of mine says at that time this referred to anyone working with metal tools, or to someone who made metal tools. He also said that "Mechanick" was sometimes used interchangeably with "blacksmith."

John Corwin's year of death is based on Janice Patterson-Rosenthal's findings, his final resting place is unknown.

Notes for CATHERINE ECKSTEIN/EXTINE:

Rootsweb.com message board posting of 14 Aug 2007 by Andy Likins on the Shepler message board.

Just this week I received some information from the Case Western Reserve University Archives which I think will stir up some more discussion on this board. First, let me give a little background. A few weeks back (at the beginning of this thread) I put forth the possibility that my g-g-g-g grandmother, Mary Shepler/Shipler Eckstein (wife of Leonard Eckstein/Extine) might be a sister of Peter, Matthias and Philip Shepler of Westmoreland Co., PA. I've been putting quite a bit of time into researching the family of Leonard and Mary. One of their great grandsons, Leonard Case, Jr., was the founder of Case School of Applied Science in Cleveland, Ohio, which later became a part of Case Western Reserve University. I recently requested copies of the information they have on the Eckstein family in their archives. One of the items I received was a typed genealogy titled, "The Eckstein Family, Original home in Bavaria, with a branch in London. Married into the SHEPLER and CASE FAMILIES in Winchester, Virginia and Westmoreland County, Penn." Unfortunately, the author of this manuscript is not known for certain as it was not written anywhere on it. (I doubled checked with the archivist to make sure.) The archivist wrote that, "The documents about the Eckstein family came from Eckstein Case's personal papers. To the best of our knowledge, the Case family history compilations were done by Eckstein Case, but most have no explicit attribution." Eckstein Case (1858-1944) was the son of Zophar Case (1804-1884), son of Magdalene Eckstein Case (1761-1832), daughter of Leonard Eckstein (1731-1799)

Before I go any further, I want to say that I am not saying that the information in this manuscript is the gospel truth, but this information does appear to be the tradition of this family and I wouldn't be surprised if most it were correct. However, in other parts of this document, I have noticed some small problems with incorrect names or dates that are a few years off of what I know is correct. I'm attaching the page which contains the basic information on Leonard Eckstein's family. On this page, it mentions that near Winchester, Virginia, "a German family befriended [Leonard]; in the family, named Shipler, were three sons and two daughters: Peter, Matthias, Philip, Margaret, and Jane. In 1760 he married Margaret and stayed in Virginia until the Revolution broke out."

About Leonard's wife's name... in a 1776 advertisement in the Virginia Gazette where Leonard says he is not responsible for her debts, her name is given as Mary Eckstine. In the record of their divorce in 1784, she is referred to a Mary Shipler. In all family records (including the attached on) she is referred to as Margaret. From all of the family letters, there is never an indication that Leonard was married more than once so my guess is that she was Mary Margaret (with the German naming system we've been learning about).

Another note is given on the attached page. "Jane Shipler married John Corwin, whose sister Sally married Zophar Cairnes, a brother of Elizabeth, wife of Butler Case." Pheeewww! Butler Case was the father of Meshach Case who married Magdalene Eckstein, daughter of Leonard. Follow that?

Another item I received was a copy of a letter from Nancy Eckstein Hise of Russellville, KY to her sister Catherine Eckstein Reeves of Fayette Co., PA (both daughters of Mary Margaret Shepler Eckstein – I don't say daughters of Leonard because he claimed in his will that they weren't his). It was written on 10 Sep 1815 and Nancy writes, "I want you to remember me to evry enquiring friend particularly to Uncle Phillip Shepler and family..."

So, that is something more to add to the Shepler research. But like I say, I would consider the relationship of the Shepler siblings mentioned to be family tradition. It may very well be true, but we need some proof from primary sources before we can say for sure. Perhaps finding more about Jane Shepler Corwin could help.

Hi Gene,

Houseman who married Lucinda Shepler questioned Ward's Administration which record I don't have the number. Laws passed 1842 Session of Harrisburg PA-David R. Porter Governor (5) An act to confer on Samuel Tyson and others the rights and benefits of children born in lawful wedlock. That Samuel Tyson, son of Samuel Tyson and Tracey Leonard, late of the county of Chester PA dec. and Joseph W. Shepler, Hannah Shepler, Rachel Shepler and Margaret Shepler children of Jacob Shepler of Rostraver Twp. Westmoreland Co. PA, Henry Colt Jr. of the County Luzerne, and Jesse Renninger Laverty of the county of Cumberland PA shall have and enjoy all the rights, benefits and advantages of children born in lawful wedlock as fully as if they had been born in lawful wedlock. 8 Feb. 1842. Sounds as if perhaps Jacob was not married to Mary Stewart.

" And I went over to the Belle Vernon Cemetery this afternoon and looked for Morris Corwin's tombstone but could not locate it. My notes say he was buried there. Now - maybe he was moved from an older cemetery -but there is a stone with his name on it. Maybe Anut Polly had it moved. I will go back over when I have more time, but I know it is there - and it was very old and worn. Hopefully 20 years didn't completely erode it away."

Email from Mary Lou 25 Sep 2005 (in part)

"As I said before I found the tombstone but am not sure if we will be able to get a clear picture of it even after it is chalked. You should see how close it is to the old Smock stones. If the sun had not been behind a cloud, my husband may not have seen the "orris". Mary E. Smock was right next to it and a lot clearer."

" But the point of this message is that I have since writing a few minutes ago learned the names of James Corwin's first wife and Joseph Corwin's wife. the following is a biography of Myron Corwin in John N. Boucher, HHistory of Westmoreland County Pennsylvania (New York: Lewis Publishing Company, 1906, 310-311:

Barnett Corwin, son of James and Jane (Lenock) Corwin, was born in Belle Vernon, where for many years he was connected with boat-building. He was thrice married and was the father of twenty three children. [Which, I take it, resulted from a misreading of the digits "13". DAM] One of his wives was Martha Springer. At the age of 76 he died in Belle Vernon.

Joseph Corwin, Son of Barnett and Martha (Springer) Corwin... married Margaret Culler, and they are the three sons..."

From the book THE OLD AND NEW MONOGAHELA by John S. Van Voorhis the following is taken from pg. 448:

"Aunt Polly has passed away, was on the lips of almost every one on Friday evening as her death was announced. Mrs. Mary Smock Corwin was ninety-seven years old on Wednesday prior to her death, which occurred Friday, January 6, 1888. She was born January 4, 1791, on the farm now owned by Capt. Joseph Shepler, in Rostraver township, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania. The farm at that time was owned by one Joseph Becket a name well known in the early history of Western Pennsylvania. She was the daughter of Barnet Smock, who migrated from New Jersey in 1789. Her father lived on this farm twenty-one years. The maiden name of the mother of the deceased was Jane Berdine. She was married to Peter Wene, by whom she had three children, named Sarah, Anna and Jane. Barnet Smock was her second husband. The deceased was married to Morris Corwin at Brownsville by Esq. Elias Baillins, on the 18th day of June, 1807. Morris Corwin died in Bellevernon, September 20, 1835, in the same house in which his wife died.

Aunt Polly Corwin, as she was familiarly called, and her husband came to Bellevernon April 1, 1816, and occupied the house in which she died. She lived in this same house for seventy-two years, with the exception of three months. She lived to know that the sugar camp of three-quarters of a century ago had become a thriving town of two thousand souls. She outlived three generations of citizens. She was born in the early days of Washington's first term as President. She was born amid the struggles and trials of the new Government, and lived to the time when that Government had extended its limits from ocean to ocean, and its population increased from 4,000,000 to 60,000,000."

Notes for WILLIAM PATTERSON:

From Janice Patterson Rosenthal, email of 1/27/2006

On the 1850 census his birthplace is listed as Pennsylvania. However, on the 1880 census several of his children say he was born in Pennsylvania (including Jane Patterson Beazell) and several other of his children say he was born in Ireland. In a sketch of Calvin Patterson-- William & Jane (Corwin) Patterson's grandson--in (Nelson's Biographical Dictionary & Historical Reference of Fayette County) by Henry E. Shepherd (S.B. Nelson, 1900) pp 897-898, it is written that William was "a native of Ireland, came to this country as a young man. He married Miss Jane Corwin, a daughter of John and Agnes Corwin, of Westmoreland county, Pa." This may be true, but I find it odd that William settled in Rostraver just a few miles from other Pattersons who had been in Pennsylvania since before William was born. So, to answer your question, I'm not sure where William Patterson was born. I suppose we can narrow it down to Pennsylvania or Ireland.

He was born 1787 in Somerset Co., New Jersey, and died 08 Jun 1831 in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for ISABELL SARAH SHEPLER:

From Ed Smock regarding his visit to the Fells Church Cemetery on 8 Aug 2002

" Abraham and his wife Isabelle (Shepler Smock are buried in Fells Cemetery, Fellsburg, PA.

Their headstones read:

Abraham Smock

Died June 8, 1831 (June 8, the 8 is hard to read however, it is a single digit.)

Aged 44 yrs, xxx months (could not read the months)

Isabelle Smock wife of Abraham Smock (on Abraham's right)

Died June 8, 1834 (stone is broken yrs and months unreadable)

The 1834 date may have misread due to the condition of the stone, Isabelle was living with her son Phillip and his wife Emeline in the 1850 census. Her age was 63 indicating she was born in 1787 the same year as her husband.

Note: Provided by Edwin K. Smock 8 Jan 2003. The following information on Mary, Lavena (Laurenda) and Eliza (Elizabeth) was added after discussions with Gene Smock and Rodney Fair on the probable daughters of Abraham and Sarah (Isabelle) Shepler Smock.

Mary Smock, b. circa 1809-1810, Westmoreland Co. Pennsylvania. married John Stark Carnes.

The 1810 census shows, under Abraham, 1 son and 1 daughter, both under the age of 10 or less (This most likely was Peter, born 1808 and Mary, born near the same time-1809)

1810 Census: Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co. PA

Age 0-10 Son (1800-1810) Probably Peter, b. 1808

Age 0-10 Dau (1800-1810) Probably Mary, b. circa 1809

The 1820 census shows under Abraham, 3 sons age 10 and under (probably mistake, Peter should be in the 11 to 15 age bracket) and 3 daughters, 2 in the 10 and under bracket and 1 in the 11 to 15 age bracket.

1820 Census: Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co. PA

26. ELIZABETH "BETSY"⁴ SHEPLER (*PHILLIP*³, *MATHIAS*², *JOHN*¹) (Source: Monongahela Valley Biographies, Biographical and Portrait Cyclopeda of Fayette County by Gresham and Wiley, 1889, page 390.) was born Bet. 1789 to 1792 in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, and died 27 Sep 1882 in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. She married HENRY SMOCK (Source: Monongahela Valley Biographies, Biographical and Portrait Cyclopeda of Fayette County by Gresham and Wiley, 1889, page 390.) 1808 in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, son of BARNET SMOCK and ELIZABETH BODYN/BODINE. He was born Bet. 1788 to 1790 in Somerset Co., New Jersey, and died Abt. 1847 in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania.

Notes for ELIZABETH "BETSY" SHEPLER:

On Elizabeth's stone at Fells Church Cemetery is "died Sept 27, 1882 aged 93" which equates to 1789. (see below census years, which seem to make her birth year 1792)

1850 Census Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., PA.

Lists Elizabeth Smock, age 58, living with Samuel Reeves and her daughter Mary Jane Smock Reeves. This would make Elizabeth "Betsy" (Shepler) Smock's year of birth 1792. (see Notes for Mary Jane Smock)

1860 Census Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., PA

Lists Elizabeth Smock age 68, Occupation Weaver living with her daughter Caroline age 23 Occupation Seamstress. Caroline was Elizabeth's youngest daughter and married Lewis C. Hilty the following year.

1870 Census Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., PA

Lists Elizabeth as "Lizzi" Smock living with D. Douglass and her daughter Sarah (Smock) Douglass and her age as 78 which agrees with the 1850 & 1860 census as to her being born in 1792.

Email from Fred Shepler 8-1-2007

" So far as I know Elizabeth's father was Phillip Shepler who her son Phillip Smock was named after, Also according to the bio of Samuel Smock their son.

There were 7 Elizabeth Sheplers in the 1700's.

Isabell Sarah Shepler was her sister and did marry Abraham Smock"

See note for Henry Smock as to Elizabeth's place of burial by Edwin K. Smock (Aug 2002), Henry was buried there also but his stone was not readable.

Date born 2: Bet. 1789 to 1792

Notes for HENRY SMOCK:

Henry was 3 years old when his parents came to Westmoreland county. He was a common laborer and married a Miss Shepler. They had eleven children: Ruhama Smock; Mary Smock; Philip Smock; Jane Smock; Lucinda Smock; Samuel Smock; Barney Smock; Isabella Smock, dead; Sarah Smock, Margaret Smock and Caroline Smock.

Source: The biography of Samuel Smock, published 1889.

Note: Henry's sister Mary Jane, later known as "Aunt Polly" Corwin was born in Rostraver Township, Westmoreland 04 Jan 1791. If the 1791 date is correct, it agrees with the 1789 immigration date given for Henry's parents move from New Jersey and Henry would have been born in NJ in 1788 not 1790.

Henry's middle name is unknown, in the 1840 census his name is written " Henry V. Smock"

Names of Heads of Families

Henry V. Smock Males 10 to 15 (1), 15 to 20 (3), 50 to 60 (2) Females 5 and under (1), 5 to 10 (2), 10 to 15 (1), 15 to 20 (3), 20 to 30 (1)

(note, missing is a mark in the proper age bracket for Henry's wife Elizabeth who might not been home when the census taker visited, also shown are 2 males in Henry's age bracket and a total of 14 individuals living in his household, at least two or more were not family members since Henry's daughters Ruhamma had married James Houseman and Mary had married Samuel Reeves prior to this census, Samuel Reeves with wife is shown on the same census page. A possible explanation of the extra persons in Henry's household might be his brother Abraham who is not listed in the census was living with Henry at the time the census was taken.)

Note provided by Edwin K Smock Aug 2002:

Elizabeth is buried in Fells Cemetery, Fellsburg, PA.

The grave of Elizabeth (Shepler) Smock reads: "Elizabeth" wife of Henry Smock died Sept 27, 1882 aged 93 years. (Her birth would equate to 1789) There are two head stones to her immediate left however they are unreadable. The closest one may read Davis R. (I could not be sure but that is my best guess). -- In July of 2004 Edwin and Gene Smock again surveyed the graves at Fells Cemetery. From the appearance of the stones to the left of Elizabeth (Shepler) Smock's stone it was decided that the small stone between the two larger stones was placed there at some point by mistake because the stones were too close together for three persons to have been buried there. The larger unreadable stone was for Henry.

THE OLD AND NEW MONOGAHELA by John S. VanVoorhis on page 312 has the following (in part):

"Among the boats built at the Third Street Yard were the Ontario, Protector, Monogahela, Dolphin and Pittsburgh, together with many others whose names we have not obtained. Among these were the Minstrel, which, in April, 1842 fell from blocks, killing Robert Winters, and very seriously injuring John Baldwin by fracturing his leg and breaking the jaws of John Corwin. Daniel and Joseph Springer, James Housman, Samuel Massey, and others were under the boat but escaped with very slight injury."

Note: James Houseman (Housman above) was the husband of Ruhama Smock, Aunt Mary (Polly) Corwin's niece.

From the 1850 census, it can be determined John Corwin died between 1847 and 1850. In 1850 wife Jane and children are listed in Guernsey County.

Notes for BARNET CORWIN:

" She (referring to Mary "Aunt Polly" (Smock) Corwin) was the mother of Barnet, James, John and William Corwin. John and William are dead and Barnet is dead also, His first wife was a miss Cell, a sister of Mrs. Thomas Mc Fall and Mrs. Alex Frazier. By his first wife Barnet had two children, John W., the main street grocer, and Mary. Mary was taken to her grnadmother's family Aunt Polly when she was 11 years old, and remained with her until death separated them a period of 41 years. In joy or sorrow, in sickness and health, Mary was ever alert in that household, and when her kind old grandmother was worn out by age and affliction, she was the ministering angel that soothed her pains and made soft her pillows until God took her dear one home. Barnet's second wife was a daughter of the late Joseph Springer, the issue of which marriage was several sons and daughters, most of whom are still living. His third wife was a Mrs. Cooper."

Page 366 in part

"The venerable John S. Carns, now deceased, remembered very well of being present at the first blowing. Persons in large numbers from the surrounding country were in the factory to witness the operation of blowing glass. The cylinders or rollers were only large enough to make from six to nine lights of eight by ten. Mr. Carns lived at that time in the old log school house on the farm, then belonging to the late Samuel Jones, but now the lot owned by Henry Lang, near the colored church in Rostraver. Mr. Carnes could not recall to mind any of the blowers unless it be that of Chas. M. Coll, who he thought was among the number, and perhaps Graber, Burk, Sedgwick, Benedict, Kimber, Goslin, Berry, Reddick, Downs and Denny."

" The first person buried on these grounds after its purchase was Abram Smock, who died in the house now occupied by his widow in Bellevernon, September 24, 1866. . Prior to this date, however, the ground in a limited space had been known as the burial place of the Springer family." There are several other references to the house occupied by Eliza Smock. An 1872 map of the town of Belle Vernon shows the location of her house on a triangular lot at Main and State streets.

The following Notes were provided by Edwin K Smock July 2002

Abraham is buried in the Belle Vernon, PA cemetery in the same lot as his wife Eliza Jane (Mackey) Smock and his son John H. Smock. His headstone reads:" OUR FATHER", "ABRAHAM SMOCK", "Died Sept 24, 1866 Aged 54 years 6 mths & 12 days" (Would equate to March 12, 1812)

The referenced house on the "triangular lot", (lots 65and 66) (bounded by Main St., Cherry Alley, Solomon St., and State St. (Road) once occupied by my g-g-grandfather Abraham and his wife Eliza Jane, is at the bottom of State Street hill where State street merges with Main Steet in downtown Belle Vernon, PA. (going up the hill, State Street changes into Broad Avenue in North Belle Vernon.) I remember visiting a family who lived there (circa 1943) and being told that we were related. I do not remember the relationship.

I also visited the "Smock" homestead at 616 Arch Street, Belle Vernon. The original "very-very old house is still there (as I remembered it in 1943 timeframe). This house was the home of Marion "Badger" Smock and his wife Sarah Jane (Culler) Smock and many Smock siblings through out the years. Mrs. Wanda Stanley presently occupies the home. She is a step-daughter of Frank Smock. My family (my parents Robert and Thelma Smock) lived one block away at 434 Bluff St. (At the corner of Bluff and Arch Street) (1938-1944 timeframe).

Abraham Smock is buried in the Belle Vernon, PA cemetery in the same lot as his wife Eliza Jane (Mackey) Smock and his son John H. Smock. His headstone reads:"OUR FATHER", "ABRAHAM SMOCK", "Died Sept 24, 1866 aged 54yrs 6 mths 12days". (Would equate to March 12, 1812.)

Obituary for Mary Smock:

Mrs. Mary Jane Reeves

Mrs. Mary Jane Reeves, widow of Samuel Reeves, is dead at the family homestead in Rostraver township, Westmoreland County, at the age of 97. A week ago she had a light stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Reeves was familiarly known as "Aunt Polly" by every man, woman and child who has lived in Bellevernon during the last 60 years. She was the daughter of Henry and Betsy Smock, and was born in Rostraver township. She was never on a train but once, some 20 years ago, when she went up to Smock, on the Pennsylvania's Redstone Branch, to see a brother, and never saw a street car or automobile. Mr. Reeves died July 3, 1895. Until about three years ago Mrs. Reeves could read, and then when her second eyesight failed she greatly enjoyed having someone read to her. She kept posted what was going on, and had a wonderful memory, particularly for faces and Names. She was the mother of three children, Captain John S. Reeves, who served in the Rebellion and died a few months after his father in 1895, Elizabeth, now deceased who remained at home, and Mrs. Robert Ross, at whose home she died. There are now living four grandchildren, and 11 great grandchildren, the oldest of whom is 18, and the youngest 5 months of age. Mrs. Reeves was related to probably every family in Rostraver, one of the largest townships in Westmoreland county. Mrs. Reeves was one of the oldest of a family of 10 children of whom there are now four living. They are Mrs. Margaret Ong of Texas, Mrs. Caroline Hilty of Independence, MO, Samuel Smock of Smock, and Mrs. Sarah Doughlass of West Newton. Mrs. Reeves was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Belvernon for 80 years.

Correspondence from Susan Allen on 30 June 2007.

Hello Gene,

I do have some additional information for you regarding the children of Philip Smock and Nancy Kimple.
Nancy Smock filed a claim for pension as the mother of fallen soldier William H Smock, who died 20
September 1863 at the Battle of Chickamauga. The affidavit filed 1 September 1887, indicated that Nancy was the mother of William and was dependent on her son for support as her husband had died at Washington Township, Hocking County, State of Ohio on the 1st day of December A.D. 1863. The affadavit then listed those brothers and sisters under the age of 16 years as follows:

Salemma Smock,	born July 13, 1848
Cyntha Smock,	born June 20, 1850
Mary Jane Smock,	born December 1, 1855
George W. Smock,	born January 1, 1859.

A supporting document from the Office of the Clerk County Court Ohio County, West Virginia states: " I
George Hook, Clerk of the County Court, of said County, do hereby certify that Philip Smock and Nancy Kemple were intermarried by Thomas M. Hudson, a minister of the Gospel on the 15 day of October A.D.
1843 as appears from the records of marriages now in my office." In the affidavit Nancy indicated the same date of marriage supported by this document. I wrote to the Clerk and received a document that was a typed transcript of the Ministers marriages and the date on that document was the 10th. I believe that the affidavit and the document of support dated 1887 to be a more accurate account and have therefore chosen to use the date of marriage as 15 October 1843.

Now, back to your question. The seventh child may have been born between 1851 and 1854, based on the large gap between the birth of Cyntha and Mary Jane. I do not have any name or other information. I have not been able to locate the burial site of Philip and it may be if that could be found there may be a stone for a small child as well.

Mary Jane Smock never married. She was indeed referred to as "Molly". She died 1 March 1934, at a home for the aged in Columbus, Ohio. The certificate of death does not indicate her place of burial. I don't have an obituary.

George W. Smock died 9 June 1903. He never married. He is buried in the Logan Cemetery and his mother is buried beside him, according to one of her obituaries (I have several).

Did you want more information about Salemma and Cyntha (no "i")?

I look forward to your email.

Susan

Notes for NANCY KIMPLE:

NANCY KIMPLE FUNERAL NOTICE

Nancy Kimple was born near Phillipsburg, New Jersey, Sept. 24, 1816, died December 7, 1905, age 89yrs. 2 months + 3 days. She emigrated in 1840. She was united in marriage to Philip Smock, on March 10, 1843. They moved from Virginia to Guernsey County, Ohio, where they resided until 1853, when they moved to Hocking County and lived on a farm near Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, until 1881, when she with her youngest children, George and Mollie, came to Logan. Seven children were born to this wedded couple, four of whom survive. The eldest son gave his life for his country. He listed in the War in 1861, was killed in the battle of Chickamauga in 1863. Three months later the husband and father died, leaving the mother to care for the younger children, in which place she proved her self to be a heroine.

Her home was her earthly kingdom in which she ruled with love. The greatest joy of her life was to gather her children and grandchildren about her and minister unto them in her own sweet way. She was a kind and loving wife & mother, a good & helpful neighbor and a true friend. She always had kind words for everybody. She was loved and esteemed by all who knew her, and those that knew her the best loved her the most.

She was a member of the M. E. Methodist Church and a consistent Christian for 45 yrs. She was a great sufferer yet bore it all with patience and resignation, and so kindly received the tender care which only a loving daughter can bestow upon a mother. When the end came she was ready, she said that she was waiting and anxious. She sat in the evening of life with a Silver Crown upon her head waiting to exchange it for a Gold one, nor did she wait in vain, the messenger called and she left us.

Rev. White was the Preacher.

Note: Copy provided by Steve Kimple, who also noted in the funeral notice that Mount Pleasant was located in Hocking Co., Ohio and not in Iowa as written above. The notice was hand copied by some one who did not provide the date or newspaper from which it was copied.

She married PHILIP KIMPLE 05 Mar 1844 in Marshall County, Virginia, now West Virginia, son of JOHN KIMPLE and MARY SIEGLER/SIGLER. He was born 16 Jun 1823 in Sussex Co. New Jersey, and died 15 Feb 1904 in Wayne Co., Iowa.

Notes for ELIZA JANE SMOCK:

Email from Barbara Hall, 11 August 2002.

The "Births" bible record of Philip Sigler Kimple says " Eliza Jane Smock was born 1818". This was probably written long after she had died. Obviously, the writer only knew the year as all the other birth records are complete dates. The tombstone in Wayne Co., Iowa which I have seen, reads " Eliza J. Kimple June 1, 1819 - Aug 30, 1855 " That is the only information I have on her birth date.

Philip Sigler Kimple apparently names his first 4 children (he had 19) for the grandparents as follows:

Henry (for maternal grandfather)

Mary Elizabeth (for Paternal grandmother)

John (for paternal grandfather)

Alye Ann (for maternal grandmother???)

The name Alye Ann is unusual and is misspelled often. Even on her tombstone it is spelled " Alley Ann " which is surely incorrect.

Gene - I wondered if the Alye Ann could have come from " Antje Ann" as in Anjte Ann Folkerson, Henry Smock's mother? The first girl might be named after paternal and maternal (Elizabeth Jane Berdine) grandmothers. the second girl would have been named after her maternal great-grandmother. Have to run! (signed) Barbara Eliza Jane was the first of 4 wives of Philip Sigler Kimple, They had 7 children together, She died at the age of 37.

Email from Barbara Hall 11 August 2002

In Part : Here is what I have on Philip Kimple from his biography in the History of Wayne Co., IA book. This was written while he was still alive and so should be more creditable that it would be if written later.

"In 1835 his father started with his family for Ohio, but when in Westmoreland County, PA, one of his horses died and they were unable to proceed farther. (note in 1840 they were in Ligonier Twp., Westmoreland Co., PA) In the fall of 1843 he wanted to leave home. He met Henry Kelts, with whom he walked to Virginia, and when they reached his uncle's, George Kimple (usually spelled Kemple), he had 5 cents and Henry had 10. In the spring of 1844 he married Jane Smock, a daughter of Henry Smock, of Wheeling, Virginia. In 1845 he moved to Guernsey Co., OH. After working a year he moved to Jackson Co., OH in 1849 and entered 80 acres of land. (note on the 1850 census he was in Elk Twp., Vinton Co., OH.) In the fall of 1854 he came to Iowa and the following Feb. settled in Benton Twp., Wayne County where he has since lived."

(Note by Gene Smock) Henry Smock lived in Westmoreland Co., PA and died there after 1840 and before 1850, his wife Elizabeth is shown living with her oldest daughter Mary Jane Reeves in the 1850 Rostraver Twp., Westmoreland Co., PA. census. Eliza Jane died in 1855, the year after they moved to Wayne Co. Iowa, after having bore seven children. Philip remarried later that year and had another nine children by his second wife and a set of twins by his third wife. He was married four times, The last marriage he was sixty-seven and his wife twenty-two. Philip became an invalid and was moved from California to Wayne Co. Iowa where he died in February 1904.

"I did check the Edgar Cemetery Records and Barney and LaVina are buried there - Along with a few other Smock Relatives"

Email from Donna Merkel 9-9-2006

I found it interesting that Barnett did not have a headstone, but look at the grass on the left side of Leavina's stone in the Full View. You probably already know, the grass over a burial is different and I think it looks like a rectange is there. That mark was not on the right side.

Notes for LEVINA/LAVINA MCCLAIN:

The 1850 census has Levina as Barney Smocks wife's first name and from Valerie Austin, in her mother's will it was written Levina. The Nebraska records have her name spelled Lavina.

The Edgar Cemetery Records in Edgar, Nebraska have her name as LaVina.

From Donna Merkel's search, the stone in the Edgar Cemetery has her name as Laevina.

Regardless how it was spelled, Levina, LaVina, Laevina, all spellings referred to Barnet (Barney) Smock's wife. Levina/LaVina/Laevina McClain, daughter of John and Keturah McClain of Washington Twp., Fayette Co., Pennsylvania.

Notes for CAROLINE BURRUS:

Obituary from the Memphis Reville 22 Oct 1927
(Copy provided by Steve Kimple)

Caroline Burrus Smock, oldest child of Charles and Sarah Burrus, was born Oct. 26, 1843 near Bible Grove, Mo., and departed this life at her home near her birth place Oct. 20, 1927, age 83 years, 11 months and 24 days. She was united in marriage to Samuel Smock, Dec 20, 1868. To this union were born 12 children, five of whom died in infancy. The oldest son died at the age of 49.

She united with the Church of Christ at Bible Grove when a young girl, and in the faith she triumphantly departed to that city whose maker and builder is God. She lived practically all her life in the neighborhood where she grew to young womanhood, with the exception of four years spent in Adair county. For the past few years she has been an invalid, and the last year she has been confined to her bed. She was a patient sufferer and bore it uncomplainingly. Mrs. Smock was one of those wholesome characters, delightful to meet, and always had a pleasant word, and a cordial greeting for all of her friends and neighbors. No worthy cause ever appealed to this woman in vain. She had that fine personality that softens words, a love that melted out all sounds harsh and cutting.

She was a devoted wife, a loving mother, and a kind neighbor. Besides the husband, she leaves to mourn four daughters: Mrs. Mamie Somerville, Greensburg, Mo., Mrs Langridge, Security, Texas, Mrs. Thomas Naggs, Keokuk, Iowa, Mrs, J. M. Casey, Cleveland, Ohio; two sons, Arthur Smock, Greensburg, Mo., J. C. Smock, Wilmathville, Mo.; ten grand children, and one great grand child, besides two brothers, Joe Burrus, Reno, Nevada, Charles Burrus, Keokuk Iowa; one sister Mrs. J. W. Livingston, of California; many other relatives and friends.

The funeral services was conducted from the home Saturday afternoon, October 22, to the Christian church in Bible Grove at 2 p.m., Rev. Arthur S. Olsen officiating. Numerous and beautiful floral offerings spoke of the esteem and sympathy of her many friends. The service was largely attended and filled the church to its capacity. Internment was in the cemetery adjoining the church where she was tenderly laid to rest.

104. NOAH⁶ SMOCK (SAMUEL S.⁵, ELIZABETH "BETSY"⁴ SHEPLER, PHILLIP³, MATHIAS², JOHN¹) was born Dec 1856 in Belle Vernon, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, and died 1930 in Arkansas City, Cowley County, Kansas. He married MARY JUNE SPENCE 21 Mar 1886 in Brides Parents Home south of Oxford, KS, daughter of JOSEPH SPENCE and ELIZABETH BROWNING. She was born Sep 1866 in Paducah, McCracken Co., Kentucky, and died 1942 in Oxford, Sumner Co. Kansas.

Notes for NOAH SMOCK:

Noah came to Kansas about 1884 or 1885. It is believed he stayed a while with his sister CeCelia and her husband Jeremiah B. Patterson in Oxford before his marriage. However, on his marriage application filed at Wellington, KS, He stated he was from Cowley Co. and he gave his age as 25 (he was actually 30 at the time), his bride to be was 18 years of age. They were married at the home of the bride's father, Joseph M. Spence 5 1/2 miles south of Oxford by Rev. James M. Via on March 21, 1886.

Noah married Mary June Spence of Oxford and first lived south near Slate Creek in a one-room log cabin. They had 5 children: Goldie, Sam, Orville, Lottie and Odessa. The three girls died before the age of four and are buried in the Yeager Cemetery 5 miles south and 1 and 1/2 miles East of Oxford.

He moved the family to western Kansas to farm, not long after he moved the family back. Orville remembered his father telling of trading his shotgun for a team of mules so they could return. Noah and family moved to Newkirk Twp. Oklahoma Territory and are listed in the 1900 KS/OK Federal Census. They then moved to Arkansas City, KS., where Noah worked and started a delivery service and bought a house on north second street.

In 1901 Orville accompanied his father, by team and wagon, back to Pennsylvania, to his grandfather Samuels farm which came to be known as SMOCK, Pennsylvania.

Noah sold the house in Arkansas City and bought a small farm southeast of town on the Arkansas River near the mouth of the Walnut River where he could raise horses and coon hounds. He died in 1930 at home. Mary lived until 1942 and died at her sister Lottie Wartick's home in Oxford. Both Noah and Mary were buried in the Oxford Cemetery. Neither Noah or Mary are listed in the cemetery records, however, they did not have a head stone for many years and in 1968 Orville and his son Gene set a stone for them purchased from Day Monument Company in Arkansas City.

CeCelia married J. B. Patterson. Oxford Cemetery records have her listed as Cecelia Smock Patterson. Gene's older sisters remembered her as "Aunt Cel."

Notes for MARY JUNE SPENCE:

The Oxford Register (newspaper article)

Spence Family, Early Settlers

Bill Spence came to Oxford from Paducah, Ky., and took his claim five miles south of Oxford a few years later in 1873.

He persuaded his father I. W. Spence, to come west. I. W. Spence, his wife, "Brownie" and their six children settled the first farm north of the Slate Valley Church. The children were Bill Spence, who married Irene Yeager; Jake Spence; Luella Spence married Harry Crouse; Tom Spence; Mary Spence who married Noah Smock; Eli Spence and Lottie Spence, who married Simon Wartick.

Bill Spence and Lottie Spence raised their families in Oxford. Bill had six children: Ivy SpenceWartick, Verde Spence Leeter, Ona Spence Miller, Melvin, Raymond and Elda.

Lottie Spence Wartick had one son, Donald. Mary Spence who married Noah "Node" Smock in 1885 in Oxford and moved to Bloom, Kan., where Noah had a claim. Node had come to Oxford in 1880 to visit his sister, Mrs. Celia Patterson (Mrs. Jerry) from Pennsylvania. After his marriage to Mary Spence and move to Bloom, a daughter Goldie was born in 1887.

They moved back to Oxford when Goldie was two months and she died of an ear infection. They lived around Oxford the rest of their lives, bearing four more children, Samuel, Orville, Odessa and Lottie. Only Sam and Orville lived to adult age and Mary and Noah are buried in Oxford Cemetery. They are the grandparents of Gene Smock.

Note: the initials I. W. should be J. M., Bill Spence's father was Joseph Martin Spence from Paducah, Kentucky.

Notes for GOLDIE CECELIA SMOCK:

Orville Smock told his granddaughter Holly Lind his sisters names were Goldie CeCelia, Lottie Lavina and Odessa. Odessa died as an infant and was not given a middle name.

In November of 2002 I found the tombstone of Goldie in the Yeager cemetery. The cemetery is on private land on the west bank of the Arkansas River about 5 1/2 miles south and 1 1/2 miles east of Oxford Kansas. The stone is a small vertical, marble stone with a rounded top. At the top is inscribed a picture of a lamb. The inscription reads " Goldy, Dau of, Noah and Mary, Smock, Died, May 21 1888, Aged 1 mo 24 days" No stones were found for her sisters Lottie and Odessa, who were buried beside Goldie/Goldy. Gene A. More About Orville Smock:

He worked as a miller at the Arkansas City Dixie-Portland flour Mill from 1933 until 1943.

He lived on a farm southeast of Arkansas City next to the Arkansas River from 1923 until 1944.

In the spring of 1944 His family was flooded out by the river, the house had mud and water damage as high as the tops of the windows, the barn and garage had big holes washed out from beneath them and all the chicken and hog houses washed down the river. Water was rising rapidly and starting to run around the driveway as He was driving the family to safety. He sold what was left of the farm and moved to town where he lived until the time of his death.

-----MEMORIES OF ORVILLE SMOCK-----

By: Robert Smock, his Nephew

Uncle Orville was an Army Veteran of World War I. He had many talents. He was an artist (Oil Paintings Mostly) ; he was a carver of wood and stone. He carved birds and fish and painted them true to life. He was also a taxidermist.

One funny story he told as a taxidermist was that he stuffed a snake, for a doctor in town. The snake was so big, it was as long as Uncle Orville's Barn. The doctor never did take it because he didn't have a place to put it. He also stuffed a possum on a stick mounted on a board for me. I had it a long time (until the possum didn't have much fur left). He carved a string of fish one time and had them out on the front porch. They looked like a real string of fish hanging there, they were so true to life. He carved gun stocks that were really beautiful. He carved a buffalo out of solid walnut for one of his daughters using a nickel for a pattern. He also carved a tiger for one of the girls.

Uncle Orville had a Willy's Overland Car and one time my folks met him at the Railroad Station, Missouri Pacific, I Think. I rode with Uncle Orville and as he pulled out onto Summit Street the door on my side flew open and I went out with it, clutching it with both of my arms over the door!

He had a couple of milk goats and a different car. At that time, all cars had metal around the top but the center of the car top was soft and one morning, they woke up and their two goats were making a noise - they had gone through the soft top roof of the car and were trapped - couldn't get out.

Aunt Bertha (Uncle Orville's Wife), raised Guinea's. They made good watch dogs; they cackled when anyone came around; they didn't have a dog; Aunt Bertha said her guinea's were good enough.

Their first son was close to my age. His name was Orville Wayne but he died when he was young.

In 1980, Gene (Uncle Orville's Son), took him to Alaska and they went fishing with someone else from Arkansas City, who met them there. When they got back home, it was extremely hot and Uncle Orville wasn't feeling very well. They took him to the VA Hospital in Wichita and that's when they discovered he had cancer.

Birds Flock in Home of Smocks
by Susie Edgerly

Sit in Orville Smock's living room for very long, and you almost expect to hear chirping. Two walls in Smock's house, 312 N. eighth St., carry peg board panels. Hanging on those panels is most of his collection of 111 carved and painted wooden birds. Each carving represents a different species. Each can be found in Kansas sometime during the year. Each was made by Smock. "I have always been interested in art," Smock, soon to be 85, said. "Painting, drawing ---- any kind of art has always interested me." Smock said he doesn't know when he first started painting. "That's too long ago to remember," He said. "I have always just done it. Art came first, even before the interest in birds." Smock has carved pieces from hummingbird to duck size. Each species is researched before he begins it, he said. "I wouldn't trust my memory on something like this," he said. "It would just fail you." Smock uses oil paint to color his wooden birds. He said he strives for accuracy, in his finished products, and know few people in town with more knowledge than himself. "Well, there may be a youngster now that knows more," he said, "but that's the only one I know about here." Teachers sometimes bring their students by Smock's home to show them his birds. "And we never turn them away," he said. "they ask questions no one but a child would ever think to ask. They want to know all about them." When Smock begins to carve a bird, he said, he draws a rough shape of it on a wood block. "I can work it down from there," he said. From that rough shape, Smock uses with a file, knife and sandpaper to smooth and give detail to his models. Many of the tools he uses he has made himself, his wife said. "they weren't in the stores when I first started," Smock said. "They weren't there in those days." Fine finishing work takes usually takes longer than the rough hewing of the wood. "But I like them both, he said. "I like both the fine work and the rough work, One has to go with the other." Smock describes himself as a self taught artist. A retired carpenter with a grade school education, the only art lessons he received were from a traveling art instructor, he said. "We had an art teacher who came around, so we might do a little water color or something," he said, "but all that did was create an interest in someone." A former farmer who used to stuff animals and once held a government permit to collect birds, their eggs and their nests, Smock said his interest in nature followed shortly after his first attempts to paint and draw. He has carved other animals and now shapes wire pictures of anything from tigers to deer, but he said his strongest interest is in birds. "I have always liked them and watched them," he said. "I have have stuffed them. I like to read about them too." Smock stopped carving and painting about two years ago, when eye problems made it difficult for him to distinguish distance. "It didn't bother the carving so much, but I couldn't paint," he said. "I'd make a blotch or I'd make two or three passes at it." "I stopped the carving because I couldn't do the painting," he said. "I couldn't find anyone else to paint them like I could, I guess I'am kind of fussy." Smock said his interest in wire shaping fills his time now the way wood carving and painting once did. But his fascination in birds and their habitat continues. He and his wife talk of owls they have seen in their trees and roadrunners they have spotted near here. "I have just always liked birds," Smock said, "I don't carve them any more, but I still have an interest in them."

Notes for BERTHA BELLE BRODOCK:
Bertha was a typical farm wife from 1923 until 1944. On the farm at that time, heat was provided by a wood stove, water was pumped from the well, there was no electricity so light came from coal-oil lamps and she did the washing on an old Maytag gas powered washing machine. She went to town on Saturdays to do the family shopping. All that changed in the spring of 1944, when the Arkansas river flooded the family out on the farm. Moving to town was a whole new experience. Gas heat, electricity, running water, a real bathroom and even a telephone.

Bertha was a hard working mother, she did what she felt needed to be done. She clerked sales for a town auctioneer, and became a practical nurse, helping to take care of the elderly and new mothers. At one time she laughed and said that she had more kids running around Arkansas City than any other woman in town. Her grandmother, Lydia Turner, lived with the family for two years, later her father Bert stayed with the family until his death and her Uncle Earl and his wife Aunt Millie also came to live with her and her husband Orville, when they could no longer take care of themselves on their farm in Oklahoma.
