

Minutes, Lakelands Basketry Guild

Jan. 24, 2016

President Trisha Henderson called the meeting to order.

The minutes were read and approved by Peggy McCarson.

The treasurer's report was given by Myrtle Longshore. We have a balance of $3058.15.

Old Business:

Joyce Crain, Sunshine Committee, would like to recognize events in members' lives – good and needs improvement. If you have a special anniversary, award, addition, etc. let her know. Also if you need a lift for an illness, surgery, etc., let her know. You can text, call, email, etc. at: joycecrain49@gmail.com or 864-578-4958.

We are working on a 2017 roster. Please make sure you have paid your dues of $25. We will double check all information at our Feb. 28th meeting. Remember, the roster is for Guild business only – do not send out chain letters, prayer requests, political opinions, ads for items you may like, etc. If you send out a mass e-mail DO NOT PUT THE NAMES IN THE TO: line. You must put the names in the BCC: line. Putting the names in the TO: line means that the recipients will be added to unsolicited emails. Putting the names in the BCC: does not cause this problem. BCC means blind carbon copy – meaning only the sender has the addresses.

New Business:

Tuesday, Feb. 28 – program by Dolores. Bring a kit to sell (at whatever price you want – full retail, half, free, etc.). You can also bring a kit to swap. As you weave the kit, incorporate some natural, re-cycled, unusual materials; examples: vines, antlers, yarn, old belts, scarfs, etc.

Pot Luck is Mardi Gras! Theme – Think New Orleans food, drink, etc. Wear bright colors, beads, etc. Let's Party!!!!!!

This basket is done on a dyed black gourd, and involves a version of Cherokee Wheels, a collar that is shaped with twined rows and has a simple woven rim. An extra dimensional touch has rows of coiling to set everything off. Emphasis will be in the shaped twined collar that comes around the top. Special tools require an awl, flat small weave rite tool, water bucket, towel, and sharp scissors.
