

ELECTION CEREMONY
(without video)

OA MEMBER A:

(Introduce election team)

Fellow Boy Scouts, The Order of the Arrow is a national brotherhood of honor scouts. Its purpose is to recognize and honor those campers who best live up to the Scout Oath or Promise and Scout Law in their daily lives and to guide them in expanding the service that has made them outstanding. The Order promotes Scout camping and maintains camping traditions and spirit It emphasizes that the good Scout camper is not only skilled in scout craft, but also true to the ideals of Scouting and its tradition of the daily good turn. The only way that a Scout or Explorer can become a member of the Order of the Arrow is to be elected for this honor by the members of his unit. To be eligible for election, a youth must fulfill the camping requirements and hold the First Class rank.

After being elected, the Scout or Explorer must undergo the Ordeal, which is a series of tests of his sincere dedication to the high ideals of Scouting and the Order. If he is faithful in performing the tests, he takes a solemn pledge of service and is admitted into the Order. A long period of self-improvement and service then follows. The patch, this arrow ribbon, and this distinctive sash identify the Order of the Arrow member. They are symbols of service. Our lodge has its own activities and projects, but our program does not replace the member's responsibility to his unit.

Indeed, each arrowman is expected to give richer service to his own troop or post in return for the honor his unit extended to him. Indian lore is an attractive sideline in our order. Indian dances and ceremonies add color to our program of service, and members often make Indian lore their hobby. However, one does not need Indian attire or skill in Indian lore to become a valuable member of the Order of the Arrow. Scouts (or Explorers), you will elect representatives to our Brotherhood of cheerful service, and we are here to assist you in the election. All registered active members of this troop, except those 21 or older, are entitled to vote. All those who receive votes from at least half of those who turn in ballots are elected. The number you elect will depend on how your votes agree with other members' votes. Remember that an Order of the Arrow election is not a popularity contest! Don't vote for a Scout just because he is your friend or just because he is a good athlete or because he is older than the rest. What really counts is his loyalty to the Scout Oath or Promise. Campaigning in an Order of the Arrow election is not permitted You are expected to think for yourself; do not let others influence your decision. The election is by secret ballot and no discussion will be permitted, so no one will know for whom you are voting. This important decision about your fellow scouts is entirely up to you. Before we announce the names of those eligible and begin the election, are there any questions?

(answer any questions about the nature and purposes of the Order Of The Arrow and tell about your Lodge and Chapter)

(Answer any questions about the election procedure.)

OA MEMBER B:

The following members of this unit have met the camping and advancement requirements and are eligible for election, as certified by your unit leader. Will you stand and form a line over here as your names are called?

(Point out place to line up and read list slowly. Arrange the candidates in a line facing the voters at the place indicated; Write each name on the board or chart as called.)

Scouts, you should now answer each of the following questions yourself; your answers will help you make the right selections.

OA MEMBER C:

Who in this group is a friend to all and a brother to every other scout? Who is pleasant and easy to get along with? Is he kind and helpful? In all, if you were a Tenderfoot would you like to hike and camp with him?

Who is cheerful? Even when he has many tiresome jobs to do? Who smiles whenever he can? Who obeys promptly and cheerfully? Does he control his temper? If you were at camp with him for several weeks, do you think you would enjoy it? Who is always ready to give unselfish and wholehearted service to others? Who, in service to others, can forget his desires and interests? Who has served your unit all year round, faithfully attending your meetings and helping with your service projects? Do you think he will continue his service in the future?

If you were his patrol leader, could you depend on him?

In all, ask yourselves: Who in this group, by living up to the Scout Oath or Promise, serves your fellow Scouts with such an example of brotherhood and cheerfulness that you look up to him with deep respect and admiration?

OA MEMBER B:

Scouts, on the ballot you will be given, print the first and last name of any and all candidates you see standing before you who in your opinion have set the best examples in brotherhood, cheerfulness, and service.

Vote only for those who you believe will continue in unselfish service to your troop. If you feel that no one is worthy turn in an unused ballot.

If you are new in the troop and do not know the candidates well enough to vote wisely, you may abstain by not turning in a ballot at all, and this will not effect the final result.

Those eligible for election also vote for themselves if they feel they are worthy.

The names of those eligible are listed on the board in front of you. When you are finished, fold the ballot only once and give the pencil and ballot to any of us.

(Distribute ballots and pencils)

(Collect ballots and pencils. Count the votes in private with the unit leader.)
