February 2007

The next regular meeting of the Redfield Lions Club will be on February 27, 2007 and presenting the program on the Lewis and Clark Expedition will be Professor Brad Tennant from Presentation College. Please join us for this interesting evening and bring a friend. We will also have some information on the Lions Leadership Institute, Relay For Life and fundraising.

At the last regular meeting held on 01/30/2007. The program included: Lion/DG Elect Joan Marlette presenting an overview of Lions. In addition, during the program, Joan also made a presentation to our own Lion Dave Rodman, with the Henry Baker Legacy of Service Award. We want to thank Lion Dave for his active involvement in the house painting projects, work for Redfield Pride Day and other Lions activities! Welcome also to Lion David Gatzke!

The Redfield Lions Club Board met on 02/13/2007 at Leos. Dale and Connie Fiedler also attended and gave us additional information on the Redfield High School Band fundraising. There will be at least 100 Band members participating in the event. We also had discussion on officers for next year and Lion Wayne Nelson shared some ideas for fundraising.

On 2/17/2007, was the Lions Leadership Institute in Watertown, SD. Attending were DGE Joan Marlette, Lion Gerry Marlette, Lion Jerold Bender and Lion Dane A. Sanger. The Institute provided training on Lions fundamentals, teamwork, project management, and included speakers Lion Mike Hall and PDG Ray Schley from the Sioux Falls Downtown Lions Club, Lion Ron Beck from Lennox Club and PDG Delmar Hofer from Freeman Lions Club. Thanks especially to Joan for coordinating the event!!

UPCOMING EVENTS:
