

Promoting equity for women and girls
through advocacy, education and research

Guidelines for Nominations

Deadline: March 5, 2010

AAUW, Abilene Branch, celebrates women in Abilene and the surrounding area who have distinguished themselves as outstanding members of their community through individual excellence and high levels of achievement. Nominees shall include women who have excelled in the field or fields of:

1. Medicine / Health
2. Science / Technology
3. Education
4. Arts / Culture
5. Community Services / Government (Volunteers, Philanthropy, Public Services)
6. Social Services
7. Business
8. Sports
9. Communication

When submitting a nomination for the April 27, 2010 luncheon at the Abilene Country Club please consider Women of Outstanding Achievement are those who:

- Are current or former residents of the Abilene area.
- Have had a personal impact on those with whom they have been associated;
- Are persons of influence and integrity who have made significant contributions to the Abilene area

We need to receive nomination form on or before March 5, 2010. It is important to include comprehensive descriptions and attach additional information (ie. such as news clippings/or other forms of documentation).

Copies are encouraged as those items will not be returned. Please mail to:

Women of Outstanding Achievement
51 Pinehurst
Abilene, Tx 79606

The Women of Outstanding Achievement Luncheon serves as a forum for recognizing outstanding women of our area and provide scholarships to women returning to college to further their education. Honorees should be outstanding women who will naturally inspire women desiring to achieve their potential and overcome barriers they may face.

Thank you for your nomination and participation in Women of Outstanding Achievement, 2010.

Nancy Henderson and Celina Fennell, Co-Chairs
Jeannie Best, President Abilene Branch AAUW

Website: <http://www.orgsites.com/tx/abileneaauw>
Phone: (325) 572- 3323 (325) 698-2421

E-mail: abileneaauw@gmail.com