RETREAT LODGING

The retreat center at Camp Lakeview in Graham, Washington has been reserved for the exclusive use of this heritage camp for the weekend.

Families can choose either small private rooms or a shared cabin. The private rooms are in the lodge. These rooms have four single beds (2 sets of bunk beds). The rooms are small, but there is just enough room for one port-a-crib or one sleeping mat in the rooms. Restrooms with showers are shared among families. The cabins are ideal for families who want to stay together as a group. Each cabin has one large shared sleeping room that sleeps 4-7 (4-5 single bunks plus a double), a smaller bedroom that sleeps 4 (1 set of single bunks and one double bed), and a restroom with a shower.

Rooms are available on a first come first serve basis.

Families that want to share a cabin or have private rooms by each other need to be sure that they register at the same time. Please be very specific on your registration forms.

NON-REFUNDABLE DEPOSIT:

Every attendee age two and over is required to pay a $25 per person non-refundable deposit to cover expenses for facilities rentals and other expenses for the weekend's activities.

NON-MEMBER FEE:

Families that are not current members of FRUA INC will need to pay for a one-year family FRUA membership. The $35 membership dues can be paid on-line.: <http://www.frua.org/members/mbrfrm.shtml> .
