January, 2007

Dear John’s Lake Property Owners:

Welcome to winter, 2007! If you’ve not been around the last few months, here’s an update. The lake froze and the ground turned white; the lake melted and the ground turned green; most recently, the lake froze and the ground is now white again. If you’ve been here, you know what I mean. If not, don’t even try keeping up.

Seriously, the summer activities are over and I hope everybody else had as much fun as I did. Many enjoyed the lake picnic, and the boat parade was again a huge success. Thanks to all the volunteers who made these events successful (especially Amy).

One of the goals of the John’s Lake Board of Directors is to promote events and activities that promote good clean neighborly fun. As we look forward we have had several suggestions for possible events for next year. These include a night time boat parade with lighted boats; an amateur ski show, organized and conducted after 4:00 PM; and a possible picnic after the annual meeting.

The board is looking for your input on these ideas, as well as any additional ideas you may have. Feel free to contact me, any other member of the board, or even better, show up at our next meeting. The next board meeting is scheduled for February 3, and as always everybody is welcome. There is a meeting notice enclosed with this mailing.

Well winter is finally here, and I hope you come around and enjoy it. I know I’ll be praying for snow, riding the trails, hitting the slopes, and hiking out to talk with the fishermen.

Take care, and don’t forget to check out the web site at www.johnslake.org

Sincerely,

                      Michael A Ales
                      Chairman
