

Marshalling the Troops: Strength-based Multidisciplinary Service Planning

Presented by:

Barb Recknagel, LGSW, of Braley & Thompson
&
Susanne Cole, M.A., LSW of Pressley Ridge Schools

Wednesday, November 8, 2006

9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Braley & Thompson, Inc., #1 Dunbar Plaza, Dunbar, WV

This training event is geared toward mental and behavioral health, juvenile justice, and social service employees, as well as parents and family caregivers, health professionals and educators who work on multidisciplinary service or treatment teams emotionally and behaviorally challenged children and adolescents

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. Participants will learn to design highly individualized service plans and supports for youth with serious emotional and behavioral challenges and their families.
2. Participants will work in a cooperative and collaborative manner as a team member in the development of a Wraparound Plan (e.g., MDT, IEP, Treatment Teams, etc.)

CEU's WILL BE REQUESTED FOR SOCIAL WORK, NURSING & COUNSELING

Marshalling the Troops -November 8, 2006 REGISTRATION DEADLINE NOVEMBER 1, 2006
Mail or fax to Amy Elswick, WVSOC, Fax 304-399-0130. Mailing address: MSFA, 940 Fourth Avenue, Suite 335, Huntington, WV 25701. Phone 304-399-0126, ext. 101 for more information.

Name _____ Title/Role _____

Organization _____ County _____ Phone _____

Email Address _____ Fax _____

Mailing Address _____

Do you have a child (natural, relative, foster or adopted) enrolled in the System of Care?

Yes No

I will need transportation to workshop; please contact me.