

FREE CULTURAL COMPETENCE TRAINING WORKSHOP

“Our Town” & the Dynamics of Difference

Friday, November 10, 2006
1 to 3 pm.
River Park Hospital, Huntington

Call 697-0255 to Register

Sponsored by River Park Hospital, Cabell County Family Resource Network and West Virginia System of Care

How does “Our Town” deal with families and their differences? This workshop helps you experience and appreciate family differences from a strengths-based, family centered perspective. Participants will take part in a lively interactive experience to learn about family diversity issues and social barriers that limit access to community resources, and gain insight into culturally competent practice with West Virginia families.

Learning Objectives:

1. Participants will experience and appreciate family differences from a strengths-based, family centered perspective.
2. Participants will learn about family diversity issues and social barriers that limit access to community resources.
3. Participants will gain insight into culturally competent practice with West Virginia families.

CEU's to be submitted for approval for Social Work, Licensed Professional Counseling, Certified Addictions Counseling.

NOTE: TRAINING OF TRAINERS FOR "OUR TOWN" & THE DYNAMICS OF DIFFERENCE WILL BE OFFERED THE SAME DAY (November 10, 2006) FROM 10 A.M. TO 4 P.M.

CONTACT JEANETTE ROWSEY AT 399-0126 FOR MORE INFORMATION ON BECOMING AN "OUR TOWN" TRAINER.